

Miners Must Work Monday; Made Subject To Draft Call

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, June 4—President Roosevelt, who has ordered John L. Lewis' striking coal miners back to work Monday, laid down today as a simple rule that a man who quits essential war work thereupon becomes liable for army service.

He brought up this phase of the coal controversy himself at a press conference, without saying whether he has any drastic work-or-fight order in mind.

Meanwhile, nothing but silence came from Lewis, whose loyal on his so far personally held miners faces a real test in view of the president's order.

Troop Protection?

First, Mr. Roosevelt was asked whether troop protection would be provided for those miners who obey his order to get back to work.

He preferred not to comment on that because, he said, it was in a sense a bit iffy. He hoped, he said, that the miners would go back Monday.

Then, without any further questioning, the chief executive said there has been a good deal written about the induction of miners into the army. He commented that there was nothing startling or new about that and that the rule is a simple one and applies to all, not only the miners.

Liable For Service

Mr. Roosevelt went on to say that if anyone is deferred because he is engaged in an occupation essential to the war, he normally remains deferred as long as he continues to work.

But as soon as he stops work, he stops that work for the nation, and then becomes liable for army service, the president said.

A great deal, he said, had been unnecessarily made of that feature in the newspapers.

Asked about those miners who have dependents, the president said they would be treated just like everyone else.

To a question as to whether Alien laws might be invoked to deal with the strikers, the president replied he did not understand what was meant. He added that aliens are inducted and the same rules are applied to them as to citizens.

Face Four Issues

The nation's 500,000 striking coal miners are confronted with a momentous choice—obeying President Roosevelt's command to return to work by Monday or sticking to the Union's half-century old refusal to dig coal without a contract with the operators.

Reaction from the idle coal fields was sparse and wary. The president gave the strikers until Monday to think it over, and to contemplate these possibilities:

- 1—Adverse public reaction as coal supplies dwindle, steel production plummets downward, and Congress acts on anti-strike legislation.
- 2—Loss of their deferment from military duty, which has started already in Alabama and Tennessee by gubernatorial order.
- 3—Invoking of laws affecting aliens. Many coal diggers are aliens.
- 4—Use of federal troops to protect men who want to work in the government-operated mines from demonstrations by pickets.

Local Girl Wins State Scholarship

Miss Mary McMillion, who last week was awarded the Gettysburg high school Alumni scholarship prize, today was announced as the winner of the annual state scholarship in Adams county. She was one of 19 seniors from all sections of the county who took the state exam here on May 7.

CADETS FETED AT THURSDAY NIGHT DINNER

The third group of Cadets of the 55th College Training Detachment to complete the prescribed course of academic instruction and flight training were feted at a dinner at the Hotel Gettysburg Thursday evening.

It was in the nature of an "appreciation" dinner with Captain John R. Coshey, commanding the detachment; Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of the college, and other guests present.

Frank Stoehrer, member of the detachment, was master of ceremonies.

The program opened with the singing of the Army Air Corps song followed by several brief talks.

Lauded By Hanson

"Working with you men has been a great satisfaction and pleasure to me," Doctor Hanson said. "By your fineness of soul and qualities of spirit you have endeared yourselves to the whole community."

"One can describe the typical Dutchman, the typical Italian, Frenchman or Englishman but it is impossible to define the average American."

"The typical American has not been born. America is a great crucible into which all of the nations of the world have been poured. Some day time will draw out a young man from that crucible and everyone will recognize him by his qualities as the typical American."

"When that time will be I do not know but he will have certain traits—he will be clean, in head, heart and ideas of life; he will be daring, willing to try every possible road of progress; he will be intelligent and he will have the quality expressed by a young man of my acquaintance during the last war, 'everything that I have belongs to my country when my country needs me.'"

"Best of Luck"

Captain Coshey congratulated the men for the splendid record made here. The records they established here will follow them when they leave, he told the group. "You have finished the first part of your air crew training," Captain Coshey said, "now some will become pilots, some bombardiers, some navigators. You will find the going a whole lot tougher in advanced schools than you did here. You have a long way yet to go, and I wish everyone the best of luck and I hope all of you receive wings. Happy landings to everyone."

Captain Albert Kweeder, medical officer, said:

"I can't help but marvel at the physical condition of you men. Not one man has a communicable disease of any sort. I am proud of you and wish you every success."

Presents Medal

Pleasure in "the opportunity to be of service to you in the physical training program," was expressed by C. E. Bilheimer, college athletic director. "You have given me a new aspect on training and helped me a great deal."

"Good luck to you and may you all realize your ambitions to become pilots," Mr. Bilheimer concluded.

High School Club Joins Federation

The Junior Historian History club of Gettysburg high school has been accepted for membership in the Pennsylvania Federation of Junior Historians, a state-wide organization sponsored by the Pennsylvania Historical commission.

The club, organized last February, meets monthly under the supervision of Miss Louise Ramer, faculty advisor. The 30 members are engaged in a number of projects, and during the past few months heard lectures by C. William Storrick and Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, president of the Adams County Historical society.

FFA MEMBERS GIVEN PUREBRED PIGS TO FEED

Plans for general improvement of the pig population of the county based on the gift of 12 purebred Hampshire gilts to as many FFA chapter members were discussed Thursday night at a meeting of the county agricultural education advisors at East Berlin.

The gilts will be given to two members of the FFA clubs at Biglerville, Gettysburg, Arendtsville and East Berlin. One member from each of the Fairfield, Littlestown, York Springs and New Oxford clubs will receive a pig.

The swine are being presented to the county youths by the Sears and Roebuck foundation with the provisions that a controlled feeding program, to be drawn up by the school agricultural education advisors, be employed for the pigs and that out of each litter the FFA advisor may select the best gilt for breeding purposes to be given to another member of FFA.

The eight-week-old pigs will be distributed Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at Gettysburg high school. The gilts are worth between $40 and $50 apiece.

Adopt Feed Program

Most of the agricultural education teachers stated they were in favor of a 4-3-2-1 feeding program of four parts corn, three of oats, two of wheat and one of a supplement including tankage, linseed oil meal and alfalfa leaf meal. Later the feeding ratio of corn will be cut down to prevent the pigs from becoming too fat, and will be built up again when they reach breeding stage.

The agriculture teachers also suggested that the boys put the pigs out to pasture if possible. The pigs must be kept separate from other swine on the farm.

The FFA heads discussed the possibility of having one of the chapters purchase a purebred Hampshire boar to be paid for by service fees from breeding. At a later date the Hampshire would be sold and another purebred boar secured, it was decided.

To Attend Banquet

The 12 youngsters will be entertained at a dinner for FFA youngsters receiving the pigs in York, Adams and Lancaster counties to be given June 15 at the York Y.M.C.A. by the Sears and Roebuck foundation.

All FFA clubs of the county have paid dues to the state FFA, it was announced. An inventory of the tools and machines purchased by the government for the night classes held in the county schools was presented.

The agriculture teachers met at the high school while the wives met with Mrs. Marvin Webb.

Argentina Army In Revolt; President And Cabinet Flee

By CHARLES H. GUPTILL

Buenos Aires, June 4 (AP)—Army units revolted today against President Ramon S. Castillo's government of neutral Argentina, marched into Buenos Aires and quickly seized control of strategic points about the city. Castillo is reported to have left the Capital but it is not known whether he had abandoned the government.

There was bloodshed in a clash on the outskirts.

Gen. Pedro Ramirez, minister of war in the Castillo cabinet, was identified as the leader of the revolution.

Government quarters described the revolt simply as "a military movement." Castillo assigned Gen. Rodolfo Marquez to combat the movement with "forces of repression" made up of men loyal to his conservative regime and "policy of prudence" in world affairs.

On Lookout For Gunboat

(Port authorities in Montevideo, capital of neighboring Uruguay, were ordered to be on the lookout for an Argentine Navy gunboat, which was reported without confirmation being used by Castillo and other members of his government to flee.

(A Montevideo dispatch said conflicting reports from Buenos Aires left the impression that the movement against Castillo was aimed at reversal of Argentina's foreign and domestic policy, which has left her as the only American nation to maintain relations with the Axis. One source, who cannot be identified by name, said military leaders had recently given Castillo an ultimatum to modify his policies within 48 hours. He said the President curtly rejected their suggestions.)

British Ships Again Bomb Italian Island

By ROGER GREENE
The Associated Press

For the fifth time in five days, a British challenge to the Italian fleet to come out and fight was underlined today with the disclosure that Allied warships twice again had bombarded the "Italian Gibraltar" at Pantelleria.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced that Allied naval forces shelled the key bastion Wednesday night and renewed the assault at dawn yesterday.

Italian Fleet In Harbors

Allied naval salvos had previously battered the island's defenses Sunday night and Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday a force of British and Greek destroyers boldly sallied into Italy's own coastal waters to blast an Axis convoy off Capo Spartivento, on the toe of the boot-shaped Italian peninsula.

Despite these five attacks, there was still no sign of Italian men-o'-war venturing forth from their harbors, although Axis broadcasts for the past several weeks have boasted that the Fascist fleet was ready to steam into battle at any moment.

Synchronized with the naval attack, Allied bombers also pounded the island, which lies astraddle the narrow Sicilian straits, and RAF Wellingtons from North Africa flew across the Mediterranean to raid the Italian mainland port of Naples.

On Other Fronts

Other world events at-a-glance: China—American fighter pilots "slaughter" retreating Japanese armies, aid big Chinese victory on Upper Yangtze river front; Chinese advance 30 miles in three days, enter Yangtze port of Itu.

Russia—air struggle intensifies, Soviet command lists 162 German planes shot down in 500-plane raid on Kursk, 23 more Nazi aircraft destroyed in Caucasus.

Poland—London hears 2,000 Jews shot to death, 3,000 others burned alive in three-week street battle with Germans in Warsaw ghetto; 300 Nazi elite troops reported killed, 2,000 wounded; 14,000 Jews deported to east.

Southwest Pacific—U.S. Army bombers sink Japanese steamer, leave another aflame in Solomon Islands.

Burma—RAF planes kill 100 Japanese troops on Arakan front, monsoon rains bog land operations.

He described the movement as "of a legalist character."

(This dispatch, which passed through Argentine censorship, did not expand the definition of the movement, but the phrasing suggested the revolutionary forces sought a return to practices of constitutional government restricted by such measures as Castillo's long-standing "stage of siege.")

(In Washington a State department official said unconfirmed reports had been received that the revolution was supported by the Army and Air Force.

(Argentine Ambassador Felipe Espil declined to comment on the report but expressed great interest in developments. He said he had no official information.)

The disturbances developed as Argentina, the only American nation maintaining relations with the Axis, was in the throes of political campaigning in which Castillo's "policy of prudence" is a major issue.

In Army Hands

Rawson was reported supporting Ramirez, who yesterday denied reports that he was resigning as minister of war. Castillo's decree naming Marquez mentioned that the minister of war was "absent."

Observers recalled that two of the official parties of Argentina were scheduled to convene today to appoint candidates for the next presidential elections.

They said this fact might be the main cause, or at least one of the reasons, of the military movement.

Castillo has clearly intimated he favored the election of Senate President Robustiano Patron Costas and Manuel di Iriondo as the next president and vice president of the republic.

"The situation is in the hands of the Army," a police official said.

Nazis Wipe Out Warsaw Ghetto; Slay 5000 Jews

Stockholm, June 4 (AP) — The Germans were reported today to have virtually wiped out the Warsaw ghetto by deporting 14,000 Jews to the East after three weeks of desperate street-fighting in which 2,000 were shot to death and 3,000 died in their flaming homes.

A secret Polish radio station heard here last night said the Jews in the walled ghetto, scene of other bloody pogroms since the Nazis overran Poland, had given a good account of themselves by killing 300 German Elite troops and wounding 2,000 others.

The broadcast said the Jews defended themselves behind barricades as the Nazi troopers marched on the ghetto April 12.

Resistance at the barricades continued until April 24, the report added, and then street and house fighting raged for a week or more as the Germans pressed in with the aid of artillery, machineguns, flame throwers and light bombing planes.

"Save Us"

Mines and bombs blasted entire blocks of buildings and fires swept many sections of the ghetto, the broadcast said. Water, gas and electricity were shut off and the Jews finally were forced to give in.

The station, radio SWIT, was the same which, on April 21, broadcast in the midst of the fighting:

"The last 35,000 Jews in the ghetto at Warsaw have been condemned to execution. Warsaw again is echoing to musketry volleys. The people are murdered. Women and children defend themselves with their naked arms."

"Save Us"

The station then went dead.

Jews Revolted

Last night's broadcast did not make clear whether any Jews now remain in the ghetto, once crowded with 400,000 persons, but it was recalled that on May 14 Rabbi Irving Miller of New York, secretary-general of the World Jewish congress, declared in London that 40,000 Jews had been murdered or forcibly removed from Warsaw.

(He said the action was taken when the Jews revolted against inhuman treatment.)

Funeral services for Charles F. Stess, 72, who died Tuesday morning from complications at his home, Thurmont R. 2, were held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Anthony's Catholic church, near Emmitsburg, conducted by the Rev. Thomas Rinehart. Interment in Mount St. Mary's cemetery.

The pallbearers were John Hemler, Felix Hemler, Vaughn Eyler, George Eckenrode, N. Wible and M. Sanders.

OPA Won't Regulate Stenogs' Desk Drawers After All — Decided It Might Look Silly

By ROY G. BLANCK

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The OPA has decided not to regulate the drawers in its stenographers' desks after all.

A six-page memorandum numbered 9898-3 which said: "The drawers of all stenographers are to be numbered as follows: 1-2-3," has been recalled, officials said yesterday, because "it was felt that the public would not understand desk procedure and the OPA would be held up to ridicule."

The memorandum, if it had been enforced, would have regulated desk space for all employees in the Office of Price Administration, from stenographers, whose desks have three drawers, through junior economists and business analysts, whose desks have four drawers, and up to the top executives of the OPA hierarchy, who rate six drawers.

Make Good Souvenirs

Under the heading "use of drawers," the memorandum said:

"Drawer 1—This drawer is to be divided into three compartments, counting from front to rear, for memo pads, pencils, and shorthand books."

For executives, No. 1 drawer was to have been known as the "pull drawer"; No. 2, "work drawer"; No. 3, "file drawer"; No. 4, "middle drawer"; No. 5, "misc. drawer," and No. 6, "dictate drawer."

OPA workers are glad the memorandum was recalled but they are trying to get copies for souvenirs.

The Rev. Ernest W. Brindle, Arendtsville, will formally install the new man as pastor of the Cashtown charge. The choir of Trinity church, Gettysburg, will be in charge of the music, rendering two special numbers. Miss Alice M. Snyder will preside at the organ.

Mr. Ehrhart is a native of East Berlin. He graduated from Gettysburg college in 1940. This spring he graduated from the Theological seminary of the Evangelical Reformed church at Lancaster. In February of this year he was united in marriage with Miss Evelyn Conitt of Gettysburg. They will reside at Fairfield.

OPA UNCOVERS NEW PLEASURE DRIVING TRICK

Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—“Wanna do a little pleasure driving, bud? I can fix it up fer ya. I know a guy in uniform who'll drive ya. See? It's foolproof.”

But it isn't foolproof any more, say Office of Price Administration, who uncovered the latest in curb-stone rackets here.

City police were first to discover it. They said the unofficial employment bureaus operated right in the open, on Philadelphia's Broad street. For a small fee they would furnish a soldier or sailor chauffeur to motorists to take a little pleasure trip; say, to the seashore.

As soon as the OPA was tipped off, enforcement agents announced that from now on cars driven by service men will be stopped the same as those driven by civilians suspected of pleasure driving.

“Because servicemen on furlough have the special privilege of driving to visit friends, we have not been stopping cars operated by men in uniform,” a spokesman for the OPA said, “but from now on, they will be investigated.”

Suspension of gas rations for 12 motorists, for periods ranging from four months to a year, were announced yesterday by Israel Packer, OPA commissioner. Defendants failed to appear for hearings last week after they were cited on suspicion of pleasure driving.

Train Schedules To Shore Slashed

Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—There will be no direct train connections between Philadelphia and New Jersey seashore points from Sunday, June 20, until after the Labor Day week-end of the Pennsylvania railroad, the Reading company and the Pennsylvania Reading Seashore lines announced in a joint statement today.

The schedule change was ordered to “conserve and obtain maximum utilization of available locomotives and cars to meet increasingly heavy demands for troop movements and essential war-time travel,” the statement said.

“On Saturdays, Sundays and holidays beginning June 20,” it added, trains usually operated from and to Philadelphia's Broad street station, Pennsylvania station 30th street, and North Philadelphia, will be generally represented in the regular summer schedule of seashore trains leaving and arriving at Federal street station, Camden, with ferry connections at Philadelphia's Market street wharf.”

Chinese Destroy 2,000 Jap Troops

Chungking, June 4 (AP)—Chinese forces have smashed into the Yangtze port of Itu after annihilating 2,000 Japanese troops in the area and have captured Nanshen on the northern shore of Tungting lake, a Chinese high command communique announced today.

The report said the battle on the upper Yangtze had turned into a rout of enemy forces, which were battered ceaselessly by American and Chinese airmen. Fierce street fighting was reported in progress in Itu, 23 airline miles below the main Japanese base of Ichang.

In addition to capturing Nanshen, 95 miles southeast of Itu, the Chinese were reported to have retaken 10 other towns in the Hupeh-Hunan border region east of the Canton-Hankow railway.

Japanese attempts to land troops near Wuchuan in southwestern Kwangtung province on May 26 were reported to have been repulsed.

Discover Cache Of Illicit Gas Stamps

Newark, N. J., June 4 (AP)—Federal and municipal authorities were probing today the origin of 635,000 illicit gasoline ration coupons valid for 2,000,000 gallons of motor fuel, and a quantity of sugar and fuel oil coupons, confiscated yesterday in what the Office of Price Administration described as “the largest raid since the inception of rationing.”

Detective Captain Frank O'Neill of the Newark police said the cache was uncovered in a raid on a tailor shop opened three months ago by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Perella, who have been charged with possessing stolen ration coupons, receiving stolen property of the U. S. government and possessing counterfeit government documents.

MANY IN GOP OPPOSE BILL

Washington, June 4 (AP)—A large majority of the Pennsylvania members of the House have come out in opposition to the Smith-Connelly antistrike bill—one saying it would “mean another Pearl Harbor of our own making.”

On the resolution to bring the bill before the House, only eight of the state's representatives voted “yes.” All were Republicans. Voting against the measure were 13 Democrats and nine Republicans. Scott and Van Zandt, Republicans, and Sheridan, Democrat, did not vote. Congressman Gross voted “no.”

Speaking against the bill were Bradley, Philadelphia Democrat; Kelly, Greensburg Democrat; Scanlon, Pittsburgh Democrat; Fenton, Mahanoy City Republican, and Murphy, Dunmore Democrat.

Fenton, a member of the Military Affairs Committee which unanimously approved the bill, told the House after it had voted 211-163 to bring the measure up for consideration, that he had voted in committee to report the bill out “because I do not favor ‘pickling’ any bill in a committee simply because I or anyone else disagrees with it or some of its provisions.”

Declaring he was opposed to the bill because “it strikes at American labor generally,” Fenton took issue with those whom he said “love to kick the miner around,” and who do not realize “what a hazardous occupation mining really is.”

DRIVERS OBEY WLB DEMAND

Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—The regional war labor board announced today that 35 truck drivers and warehousemen employed by the Jacob Rubinoff company feed processing plant at Vineland, N. J., returned to their jobs this morning in compliance with a WLB back-to-work ultimatum. They walked out yesterday.

The board said last night that thousands of poultry farmers in the Vineland area were dependent on the company for feed and that “millions of chickens face starvation” because of the strike. Local 676 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (CIO) said the walkout was called in protest against what it termed the board's “delay” in acting on a wage increase application.

The board has said that no action would be taken until the strike ended.

WOMEN TO HELP STATE RATION HOME COOKERS

Harrisburg, June 4 (AP)—The State War board, U. S. Department of Agriculture agency, today sought the advice of six Pennsylvania women in inaugurating its program for rationing war-model pressure cookers for home food preservation.

The board, delegated to ration the state's share of 275,000 new cookers, named Mrs. Kathryn Mills, of the Farm Security Administration, chairman of an advisory committee to assist in the equitable distribution of the devices.

Other members are Mrs. H. B. Eliason, State Defense Council Victory Garden chairman; Mrs. Russell Bower, Pennsylvania Society of Farm Women; Miss Lydia Tarrant, Home Economics Extension Service; Mrs. Anna Deplanter Bowes, Pennsylvania Nutrition Council, and Mrs. Anna Green, State Department of Public Instruction.

The state board, at the same time, instructed county war boards to name similar county advisory groups to review applications for cookers presented to county farm rationing committees, assigned the task of rationing the equipment in local communities.

Applications are obtainable at retailers handling cookers and will be considered from neighborhood canning, garden and home education clubs and individuals expecting to do extensive preserving, the state board explained in a statement.

New Compromise In Free French Tangle

Algiers, June 4 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud were reported today to have reached a new compromise under which Giraud will remain commander in chief of the French Army, but in return will make a number of concessions to the Fighting French leader.

Sources who cannot be named said Giraud's concessions involved the replacement of a number of high officers by generals from the Fighting French forces such as Paul le Gentilhomme, Edward Rene de Laminat, Marie Louis Koenig and Jacques Leclerc.

It is understood that Giraud's command will be purely a headquarters job. He will not extend his activities to field command.

The task of directing the general war effort of those parts of the French empire not under Axis control was taken up by the new “committee for national liberation.”

Strike Closes Car Shop At Johnstown

Johnstown, Pa., June 4 (AP)—A walkout of more than 250 workers closed the Franklin Car Shop of the Bethlehem Steel plant today, bringing a charge from General Manager Ralph E. Hough that the work stoppage was a “direct block on providing vital transportation equipment.”

Hough added that the strike was in violation of the union contract and “sabotage of the war effort.”

“We will report the names of the workers involved who are draft age to their draft boards,” Hough asserted.

The walkout developed during a controversy over the addition of a car to the erection line, a member of the CIO United Steel Workers said. The strikers, who quit work at 11 a. m. yesterday, were to meet late today and discuss the situation.

Bus Strike Goes On; Use Private Cars

Pottsville, Pa., June 4 (AP)—Trucks and private cars were pressed into emergency service for war workers again today as 62 bus drivers and maintenance men employed by the East Penn Transportation company remained idle a second day.

The system serves 34 communities, running east and west from Minersville to Mauch Chunk and north and south from St. Clair to Orwigsburg. The employees—45 drivers and 17 maintenance men—are protesting a reduction of wages resulting from a curtailment of schedules requested by the Office of Defense Transportation.

Following a conference late yesterday with company officials, a committee for the drivers issued a statement saying they would lose 800 hours monthly as a result of revised schedules. They asked that the company compensate them for the lost time, which they estimated would amount to $12 a week.

A company spokesman said the men had rejected concessions offered them. He did not elaborate.

1,535 Casualties In Attu Victory

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Conquest of Attu in Aleutians cost the United States 1,535 Army casualties including 342 men dead, 1,135 wounded and 58 missing up to mid-night Tuesday, the Navy reported today.

The deaths represent a ratio of about five Japanese killed for each American lost in the battling over the snow covered crags and tundra.

Known Japanese deaths, the Navy has said, total 1,791 exclusive of enemy soldiers killed by air bombing and naval bombardments and cremated or buried before American troops took the island.

Small groups of Japanese still were roaming Attu harrassing American troops on Tuesday, the Navy said.

However, their activities have been confined to sniping, and wiping out all remaining enemy troops seems only a matter of time.

PITTSBURGH'S MAYOR LOSES GAS RATIONS

Pittsburgh, June 4 (AP)—Cornelius D. Scully, mayor of the nation's tenth largest city, kept discreetly mum when city ration board No. 1 took away all his gasoline until September 3—but not so Mrs. Scully.

The mayor explained at length but did not officially protest the penalty imposed because he had used a city-owned limousine for a 350-mile round trip to his farm at Shepheristown, W. Va.

“I'll do the protesting,” declared Mrs. Scully, indignantly interrupting her husband's discourse, “something that has not been brought out in this case so far is that I was sick as a pup that day and that is why the car was used.”

“Besides,” she continued, “all of our stuff on the farm will go to waste if we cannot use that car until September.”

The mayor defined himself before the OPA board as a “gentleman farmer and a ‘food producer.’” Further, he explained, he recently underwent an operation and had returned to work against his doctor's orders. “I need rest,” he said.

Five Days To Appeal
Not only were the mayor's personal “A” and “C” books lifted but also the “C” book for the city's limousine was suspended until July 3.

“I have a ‘C’ book for my Ford, properly issued,” the mayor told the board. “I also have a ration book issued to the city. When the car was bought it was given a ‘B’ ration. Later it was given a ‘C’ ration.”

“On the day in question I was very busy. Marion Graves, my chauffeur, brought the city car around. I know I should have turned it back but Marion is very considerate of me. The city car is more comfortable and because of a recent operation I have to be on the farm as much as I can.”

The board told the mayor, “you have five days to file an appeal.”

Browns Lose To Yanks On Walk In Ninth; Athletics Crush Cleveland 10-4

NATIONAL LOOP SEEMS SET FOR TWO-TEAM RACE

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National league is having a two-horse race for the pennant and it's a good show that the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals are giving the fans.

But the really wide-open scramble is in the American league, where the sixth place club is closer the lead than is the third club in the National. Furthermore it wouldn't take much to make all eight clubs contenders.

The New York Yankees have been showing the way except for one lapse ever since the season started, yet they have not convinced anybody that they are a real good ball club.

Certainly they have not convinced Luke Sewell, manager of the last place St. Louis Browns, whom the Yanks beat yesterday 2-1 when Bob Muncie forced home the deciding run in the ninth inning with a walk.

Browns Needs Hits
After yesterday's game Sewell was miserable. "The only place close count is in horse shoes," he moaned. "But the truth is I haven't seen any ball club in our league that stands out. The Yankees don't and it's anybody's pennant. If we get a few hits we'll be up there. If we don't get a few hits I'll go nuts."

Detroit scored seven runs in a big eighth inning of a night game at Washington to subdue the Senators 8-2 and the result of this was to expand the Yankees' margin over second place to a full game, but to hold their distance over the third place Tigers to a bare game and a half.

The Philadelphia Athletics overpowered Cleveland 10-4 with an 18-hit offensive while Rookie Don Black held the Indians to nine scattered blows. This kept the A's in fourth place 2½ games back of New York while the Indians skidded to sixth with their ninth loss in 11 games. Even so Cleveland is only four games out of first place.

Chicago Climbs
The Chicago White Sox bounced from seventh to fifth by beating the Boston Red Sox 6-4 with five runs in the third inning. Chicago, kicked around in the early weeks of the season, now is 3½ games out of the lead.

In the National league the Chicago Cubs caught the Brooklyn Dodgers still in a reverie from their final victory at St. Louis and dynamited the Dodgers 8-1 while the Cardinals romped to an 8-2 decision over the Phillies. This shaved Brooklyn's lead again to half a game.

The Pittsburgh Pirates pounded out a 9-6 victory over the New York Giants for Truett (Rip) Sewell, who now has won six and lost just one game. The triumph enabled the Pirates to hold third place, 4½ games out of the lead, by a shade in the percentages over the Cincinnati Reds, who beat the Boston Braves 7-4 in a night game.

SLAIN BY SENTRY
Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—Boatswain's mate second class Matthew Wojtylak, of Flint, Michigan, was shot and killed by a sentry at the Philadelphia Navy Yard yesterday, the fourth Naval district announced. "No further details are available pending investigation," a public relations officer said.

STATE MAY GET GARRETT MONEY

Harrisburg, June 4 (AP)—Legislation signed into law today by Governor Martin paved the way for direct action by the commonwealth to collect $24,000,000 of the $30,000,000 snuff fortune of Mrs. Henrietta Schaefer Garrett who died in 1933 without leaving a will.

Approved were bills passed by the assembly providing:

1—Claims by any heirs to an estate must be presented within seven years of the death of a testator.

2—When a person dies without leaving a will and more than seven years have elapsed in providing claims and the claims have not been settled by that time, the state collects an 80 per cent tax on the property passing to a first cousin or other relative more remote in degree than a first cousin.

Under the first bill, the door would be closed to filing of any more claims against the Garrett estate within six months after its enactment into law. The companion measure opens the way for the commonwealth to collect a major portion of the estate.

The Garrett fortune has been subject of long litigation in Philadelphia courts. More than 26,000 persons from every state in the union and 29 foreign countries filed claims.

Six hundred British naval vessels are constantly on duty over 80,000 miles of sea routes.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 4 (AP)—With or without Gauder Haegs, this year's National AAU track and field championships are attracting plenty of interest. Dan Ferris, the AAU secretary-treasurer, says the entries are "surprisingly good" and comments that he's had letters from a great many service men or boys who expect to be called soon saying that they'd like to compete. "If you hear someone holler, 'My old man could kick your old man' in the Madison Square Garden ring tonight, it'll be Bobby Ruffin and Terry Young. Both of their fathers were pro fighters. Bobby's dad fought as Teddy Hubbs and Terry's dad also was Terry Young. . . . And Chalky Wright and Phil Terranova, who clash in the main bout, both come from families of 11 children. Any crap shooter could tell you that makes their scrap a natural.

POSTMAN'S PARAGRAPH
When Ben (Arkansas Gazette) Epstein commented: "Those 11 letters Bill Henderson gained at Texas A. and M. are drawing comment from coast to coast. We still say that any fellow who makes that many letters at a major college should be elected postmaster general," a clipping reached this office with the note, "Submitted by Little Rock post office."

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Baltimore's industrial boxing tournament has attracted teams from so many industrial plants that Tournament Chairman Leon Yarneth is thinking about running it on a two-day schedule. . . . One reason why Greg Rice didn't enter tomorrow's Metropolitan senior track meet is a bad case of shin splints he picked up training on concrete roads and a hard high school track. . . . The major league All-Star game July 14 will be broadcast over the Mutual network. The company that sponsors the World Series broadcasts put $25,000 on the line for the exclusive air rights. . . . The same factors that led to the shifting of the Saratoga and Empire City race meetings will influence Governor Dewey's decision on whether harness racing can be held at Goshen and elsewhere.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Charlie Landolf, New Castle (Pa.) News: "When Huck Geary dashed for home against the Boston Braves the other day, he wasn't writing a new chapter in his book. The Pirate shortstop has been performing that stunt quite regularly since donning picaresque livery. . . . And, we might add, getting caught as far as from here to Buffalo."

CONZELMANIA
The Browns have hired Conzelman To lift 'em from a slump. And now their batting averages are sure to take some jumps. For at the plate the rotund James Is always a sensation. He never fails to get a hit. With a Conzelman oration.

SERVICE DEPT.
Lieut. Fred Frankhouse, former big league fliker, is organizing a baseball team at Fort Hamilton, New York, with Pvt. Dick Fitzgerald, ex-Fordham athlete, as his assistant coach. . . . Ray Tandler, Lew's son who is stationed at Fort Meade, Maryland, played football and basketball at Penn State college but didn't try for the boxing team. Probably there weren't any Benny Leonards around there for him to fight. . . . Lieut. Larry Steffenhagen, who did the blocking for Whizzer White at Colorado U., now is testing planes for Uncle Sam at the Philadelphia Navy yard. He holds the Navy Cross and DFC. . . . Every member of the baseball team at the Bainbridge, Georgia, Army Air Field is a former pro player, but the commanding officer, Col. Mills S. Savage, is a former Georgia Tech footballer.

FIGHT TONIGHT WON'T DECIDE FEATHER TITLE

By SID FEDER

New York, June 4 (AP)—The featherweight championship, which is more than a little bit confused just now, won't be helped much tonight, even though Chalky Wright and Phil Terranova are going to tear at each other in a 15-rounder that's supposed to go a long way toward straightening it up.

The Chalk, who insists he's not one year younger than the Maine, and Young Phil, who's a nice kid boasting about how he beat Lulu Costantino and can do the same to any 126-pounder, tangle in a tea-party in Madison Square Garden from which the winner will parade to a title tussle with Wee Willie Pep, the Connecticut firecracker, probably June 25.

This is supposed to be a title shot—the collision between Wee Willie and tonight's winner—but the package of Pop has a date to meet Sal Bartolo in Boston next Tuesday, with Wee Willie's New York version of the title on the line. And if Sal should walk out of there with all the marbles, then it's going to be "every man for himself."

For the New York state Athletic commission says it doesn't recognize next Tuesday's bout as a title tilt and wants Wee Willie to get together with the winner of tonight's shuffle.

All of which—together with the fact the National Boxing association gives its blessing to Jackie Calura as champ—adds up to a pretty puzzle for tonight's shindig.

The "smarties" along Jacobs beach have put the Chalk up there as a 2 to 5 favorite, because they're of the opinion that he's going to send longarmed Terranova back to his zoot-suit pals all out of shape.

CADETS FETED

He awarded a medal to Cadet Michael Rolak for having the best record in the physical training program.

Henry T. Bream pointed out he would have "liked to have used some of you boys on my football and basketball teams. If any of you want to come back after the war we can use you on the squads. It has been swell to work with you, you were cooperative to the nth degree; best of luck."

Tribute to the boys was also paid by Harold Beeson and the Rev. Don Heiges, who told the group he hoped they had "caught the religious spirit which pervades Gettysburg college."

Show Improvement
Great improvement in military tactics and drill was shown by the class during its training period here. Lieutenant Joseph P. Green told the group, "but the next place you go will be much tougher than we were here. We tried to get you adjusted to army life here and were lenient because of that fact. The people of the town accepted you and treated you as if you were students at the college. You will have to adjust yourself to being less free in your actions and in conforming more rigidly at the schools to which you will be sent. I want to feel that every single man sent from Gettysburg will make the grade. You are the beginning and all the men back in college and the hundreds who will train here depend upon you. The higher grades you get, the better your conduct, that much the better it will be for the men who graduate from Gettysburg college after you. If you fail, all men from Gettysburg will enter other schools with most of the cards stacked against them."

Cadets Reply
Group Commander Smith said "you can bank on us" in promising that the class would do everything in its power to uphold the honor of Gettysburg. He thanked the college faculty, the officers and the townspeople for fine treatment given the men.

Norman Magnan and John J. Zorski, of the class, thanked officers and teachers for the "fine work they have done."

The program closed with singing of the Army Air Corps song.

Maximum Terms For Draft Evaders

Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—Judges of the U. S. District court for eastern Pennsylvania have unanimously decided to impose maximum prison sentences of four and one-half years on all persons adjudged guilty of deliberately dodging the draft.

Judge Guy K. Bard announced the court's decision yesterday in imposing such a penalty on Harry E. Smith, 22, of Reading, who described himself as a minister of a religious sect. He read a prepared statement saying he was obliged to "obey God and not man."

Leon Rutkowski of Norristown was given a one-day sentence on his plea of guilty to a charge of registering under a fictitious name. It was disclosed in court that he also is wanted in Norristown on holdup charges and will be turned over to that city after completing his Federal sentence.

SUSPEND STATE CIVIL SERVICE

Harrisburg, June 4 (AP)—Governor Martin today signed a bill suspending civil service for state employees for the duration of the war.

The measure, sponsored through the assembly by Senator M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, and Senator George N. Wade (R-Cumberland) retains the merit system for present employees but provides that any person hired after the new law becomes effective shall be given a provisional appointment only without regard to civil service. Gifts or loans by labor unions and other unincorporated associations to political candidates or parties were outlawed in the state under other legislation approved by Martin.

ROCKS HAVE 2-GAME LEAD

The Wilmington Blue Rocks were two full games ahead of their perennial rivals for the Interstate league pennant, the Hagerstown Owls, today, after trimming the Owls for the second straight time, 9 to 5, last night. Six errors contributed considerably to the home team's downfall.

The Lancaster Red Roses also made it two in a row over the Trenton Packers by a score of 6 to 4. Major Bowles, big righthander of the Red Roses, had a one-hit shut-out going into the eighth inning, when he weakened and allowed five hits and all of Trenton's runs.

The York White Roses knocked across six runs in the first two innings and made it two straight over the Allentown Fleetwings by a score of 8 to 5. Fred Clemence, starting hurler for the Roses, weakened in the sixth and allowed two runs, and his successor, Ed Pazourek, let in three more with a spell of wildness in the seventh, but went the rest of the route without trouble.

Urge Sports For Army Trainees

Washington, June 4 (AP)—A self-appointed football committee of the House will meet with Under Secretary of War Patterson today to further urge the War department to allow Army College trainees to participate in intercollegiate football next fall.

Representative Weiss (D-Pa.) the leader of this group, said: "We've seen the top-ranking officers in our effort to keep college football alive, now we're going to Patterson and see what his reactions are." Weiss said. "We'd like to make one suggestion to him, and it is that Brig. Gen. F. H. Osborn, director of the special service division, be put in charge of the army's participation in intercollegiate sports. Osborn understands the problem and would do an excellent job."

"I was shocked when you told me . . . the reason for my removal . . . was a purely political one, namely that you were ordered by Ed Flynn, Frank Kelly, Mike Kennedy and Senator Mead to put their suggested candidate Frank Russell in the job."

"You said if you didn't do that, the OPA would not have the support of the New York congressional delegation when . . . the $177,000,000 OPA appropriations bill comes up for a vote."

He identified Flynn as former national Democratic chairman, Kelly as Brooklyn Democratic head and Kennedy as Tammany chieftain. Meade is a United States senator from New York.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

THE LESSER SERVICE

A country cannot give him back the life each soldier lends;
his eyes, the shattered
hips the future never mends.
He dead in foreign fields must lie and where may not be learned, at money lent in freedom's cause with interest is returned.

They give their lives in freedom's name! For liberty they die!
They give the joy of growing old to keep the flag on high.
Or can the nation make them whole or youth's lost strength restore.

But money spent in freedom's cause comes back with something more.

They give themselves, their hopes, their dreams and even though they live in freedom's cause they've offered all that brave men have to give and none of it can be returned.
Unpaid such debts remain, but money shared in freedom's cause comes back in full again.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

ABOUT SELLING

I have done a great deal of selling covering a period of many years.
Naturally, I have learned much.
Here are a few of the things I have learned.

Most sales are made in the first five minutes! After that there is either a lagging of interest or a loss of confidence in the salesman and his product. A great deal can be said in five minutes, if the right things are said—and to say the right things is the business of the salesman.

Absolute belief in the product to be sold is essential, but no matter what product or article is offered, the salesman himself is always on trial. In that first five minutes he has sold himself as well as his product—and more often than not it is his character that sells the most sales.

No salesman makes every prospect—not even the super-salesman. But every salesman can so impress his personality and his honest enthusiasm upon his prospective customer that when he leaves he has left a trail of trust behind. He will be remembered the next time he calls.

A sale is nearly always sensed at the very start. But bad judgment on a wife even this away. Being too anxious to sell, or the use of too much irrelevant talk, has often ruined all interest on the part of a prospective buyer. Also a lack of interest on the part of the salesman for the needs of the one approached has killed many a sale.

Selling, like the written advertisement, is the art of compelling the prospective customer or reader to want to buy what is offered. And always the simpler the statements are made, the quicker a sale is made.

Dishonesty, tricky statements, or wild misrepresentations, have no place in the art of selling. They are easily detected, and any salesman using such methods need never make a return visit. The honest salesman will outsell the "clever" every day in the week!

Wise business men invite the use of their time when a salesman has a good product and is thoroughly sold on it himself. Each learns something from the other.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Unseen and Neglected."

Pure beryllium is three times lighter than aluminum and is harder than steel.

Honor Dead Heroes by Abolishing
War President Urges: President Calvin Coolidge on Wednesday led the nation in the observance of Memorial Day by delivering the principal address from the rostrum in the National Cemetery.

Speaking within sight of the spot on which Lincoln stood to dedicate the cemetery in 1863, Mr. Coolidge voiced a plea for the abolishment of war as the fittest tribute to the war dead of America.

At the same time he demanded less indifference to crime in the United States and condemned what was described as a tendency of the legislatures to exceed the powers granted to them by the constitution.
These things, he said, tended to weaken the regime of law and breed turbulent populations prone to war.

Wide Support For Limit On Presidential Terms

WOULD PREVENT FIFTH TERM OF MR. ROOSEVELT

By JACK BELL

Washington, June 4 (AP)—A proposal to limit future Presidents to eight years in office attracted strong Democratic and Republican support in the Senate today with the prospect that it may become one of the major talking points both for and against a possible fourth term nomination for President Roosevelt.

Minority backing for the proposal
—a resolution for a constitutional amendment—came from Republican leader McNary of Oregon, who told reporters:

"I think Congress should pass the resolution and submit the question to the Legislatures of the various states for their consideration." Republican National committee chairman Harrison E. Spangler said its adoption would be "a great thing for the nation."

Across the political fence, Senator George (D-Ga.) said he would support the proposal with the understanding that it will not directly affect President Roosevelt's tenure in office.

Would Prevent Fifth Term

The measure, introduced by Senator Bailey (D-N.C.) in a form requiring a two-thirds vote of both Houses and ratification by three-fourths of the state Legislatures, provides that no person shall be chosen or be eligible to hold the office of President if he has held that office during all or part of two prior terms.

Its adoption, however, would not prevent a President from serving out the remainder of his term.
Bailey said because of the length of time required for action by state Legislatures "it will not head off a fourth term, but it will head off a fifth term" for Mr. Roosevelt.

Proponents conceded it will be impossible to obtain the necessary two-thirds vote in the Senate unless the administration unexpectedly supports the resolution. They are aiming for a majority there with the prospect that a substantial number of Democrats may join with most of the Republicans in supporting it.
They claimed 55 tentative backers, six more than a majority of the Senate's 96 members.

CUT POINT VALUE OF TOMATO JUICE

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The OFA cut tomato juice ration point costs in half today, announcing however that all other current blue coupon values are expected to stand unchanged for another month.

The tomato juice cut—which applies also to other vegetable juices containing 70 per cent or more tomato juice—is effective Sunday morning. The new value is two points a pound—which comes to three points for a No. 2 size can and four points for a 46-ounce can.
This was the second sharp cut on tomato juice, both prompted by slow sales.

Paul M. O'Leary, deputy administrator in charge of rationing, said point changes would be made in the future only once a month, "to ease the burden of rationing."

A new schedule of meat point values, which are one to three points a pound higher on most beef cuts also goes into effect Sunday.

West Virginia To Ration Liquor

Charleston, W. Va., June 4 (AP)— Impartiality will be the keynote of West Virginia's plan for rationing alcoholic beverages, Liquor Commissioner Carl G. Bachmann declared in a radio address last night.

Reasons for rationing and the cause of present restrictions limiting purchases to one unit of fermented or distilled beverage each week through a check imposed by stamping citizens' War Ration Book
No. 2 were discussed by the commissioner.

Bachmann explained that the methods now employed were an attempt to eliminate the non-resident and bootlegger from purchasing in state stores.

daughter, Theresa Marie, of Germantown, are visiting friends in liam Bushman and son, Gettysburg, tal school. Richard J. Stock is a member of the graduating class.

Flashes of Life

COME CLEAN, BOYS!

Philadelphia (AP)—When dump trucks filling in a housing project dribbled dirt down the middle of their block and verbal protests failed, 50 housewives joined hands in a human chain and blocked off the street.

One driver got caught inside the chain and the women kept him prisoner until he cleaned up his dirt.

UNLIMITED SERVICE

Kansas City (AP)—Cpl. Reuben Morose, 28, was mildly amazed at his latest official notice.

It was from the draft board through which he had been inducted into the army a year ago—
And it advised him he'd been classified 4-1.

KEYNOTE

Denver—Denver's first surprise trial blackout last night was 20 minutes late, in the downtown district.

The master siren, as a precaution, is kept locked—and no one could find the key.

REINFORCEMENTS

St. Joseph, Mo. (AP)—Rosecrans Field, of the Army Air Force transport command, will have two new units next month.

A contingent of WAACs, and a detachment of guard dogs.

SEEK ACCORD IN MILK STRIKE

Pittsburgh, June 4 (AP)—The city's 670,000 residents, many of whom went without milk for the second day today, were promised a double supply of it tomorrow under an agreement by the striking APL milk drivers union to make the usual Saturday home deliveries.

What would happen beyond that was still undecided, however.

Negotiation continued today, seeking settlement of the controversy which developed when the Office of Defense Transportation ordered that milk be delivered only every other day. The drivers refused to carry double loads on such days.

There was no home delivery today, although stores, restaurants and hotels received their accustomed supplies. Many stores sent their trucks to dairies for extra milk in order to meet unusual demands from the public. In most cases, normal supplies of milk were sold out with a few hours.

The Saturday truce was arranged after a conference between the union and the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers association. Milk drivers for months have been delivering Saturday and Sunday supplies on Saturday.

Urges Increase In Milk Prices

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Congressmen of four states in the New York milkshed were told by Fred H. Sexauer, president of the Dairymen's League Cooperative association, at a conference yesterday, that New York now has sufficient milk, but in two months, "production, which is now rising, will be falling."

Sexauer said insufficient prices paid to farmers would result in curtailed production, and "this means that consumers in some markets are not going to have enough milk."

He proposed a rise in the price of class 1 milk in the New York market to a minimum of $4 per hundred pounds; revision of OPA ceilings upward in secondary markets; an attempt to anticipate and forestall shortages before they occur; and elimination of what he termed uncertainties in regard to manpower, farm equipment, feed prices and prices received for milk.

WOULD DIRECT ANTI-STRIKE LAW AT MINERS

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Strong support gathered in the House today behind an Administration move to aim new labor legislation specifically at the coal mine strike.

Drafted by Democratic whip Ramspeck of Georgia as a substitute for the more far-reaching Smith-Conally bill, the Administration proposal would confront leaders of strikes in government-operated industries, such as the coal mines, with a fine of $5,000 and a year in prison.

While it would apply to any industry operated by the government, Ramspeck said, it was aimed particularly at the coal strike. Settlement of that walkout, he added, would not remove the need for its enactment.

Would Strengthen WLB

The measure would not interfere with the right of an individual to leave his work or to refuse to return to it, but it would provide a fine and imprisonment for anyone instigating or inducing an interruption of work in a government-seized plant, aiding in a lockout or strike, "giving direction or guidance" in a walkout or lockout, or furnishing funds for a continuance of a work stoppage.

Other provisions seek to strengthen the War Labor board and underline the President's authority to seize strike-bound industries.

Million Chicks Face Starvation

Philadelphia, June 4 (AP)—"Several million chickens are threatened with starvation," the Regional War Labor board said last night, in ordering 35 striking employees of the Jacob Rubenoff company's feed processing plant at Vineland, New Jersey, to return to work immediately.

The board said 1,500 farmers in the Vineland area depend upon the plant for poultry feed. Vernon A.
O'Rourke, dispute director, said an application for a wage increase for the workers was filed only 10 days ago, and the strike is a protest against alleged delay in acting upon it. O'Rourke said the board had not enough time to investigate the application.

The board told officers of Local 676, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, representing the workers, that no action would be taken on the application till the men return to work.

There are nearly 6,000,000 victory gardens on the British Isles.

mately 40 persons were injured, five of them seriously, in the blast which blew a huge hole in the roof of the Celanese plant's three-story, block-long acetone recovery building late yesterday.

No direct official estimate of the damage was available, but State Police Sgt. Truman Moon said he had been told by a company official that it would reach about $200,000.

Plant Manager Fred T. Small said the explosion was caused by power failure and that it damaged the duct works and six buildings housing the spinning section and acetone recovery departments. He said he could not estimate how long it would take to place the damaged plant units back in operation.

OPA Investigators Are "Investigated"

Butler, Pa., June 4 (AP)—OPA investigators stopped the car of a local doctor and made the customary interrogation about his use of gasoline.

When they finished he said:
"And now let me see your draft cards."

The investigators demurred.
"I'm an examiner for the county draft board and I have a right to the information," said the doctor. "For all I know, you may be draft evaders."

And the OPA men were held up 15 minutes while the doctor examined their draft registration
cards.

Horst Urges June As "Dairy" Month

Harrisburg, June 4 (AP)—Observance of June as "Dairy Month" in recognition of dairymen's role in the war is urged by Miles Horst, State Agriculture secretary, and Dr. A. H.
Stewart, State Secretary of Health.

The two officials declared in statements that farmers, despite handicaps, are producing more milk than ever before to meet military and civilian needs.

County Tops May Quota In Three Weeks

Adams countians oversubscribed the May quota of Series "E" bonds by $17,895 in the first three weeks of the month Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the county committee, announced today.

This is the highest mark set by this county in the current war and is believed to set a record in ratio to population, for the entire state.

The first quarter's sales totaled $94,443, the second quarter dropped to $12,018 and the third quarter mounted to $21,881, making a total for the first three weeks of $128,342 an "over the top" figure of $17,895 with the fourth quarter sales unreported as yet.

May's sales in Adams county are expected to reach an all-time high for any one month since the sale of war bonds started with the exception of the month of April when the Second War Loan drive was on. During that period Adams county's subscriptions totaled more than three million dollars, greatly exceeding by far the highest expectations of the most optimistic of committee members.

"There has been no let-up on the part of our committee members in the promotion of war bond sales," Mr. Thomas said today, "and at the same time the response from the residents of this all-American county has been at the same fast tempo and in the same generous spirit as it was when the country was passing through its darkest hours of defeats and the call and appeal for the purchase of more war bonds was at its highest."

"It is further proof that while the fruits of victory in our African clean-up of the Axis, the bombard-

PLAYGROUND TO OPEN ON JUNE 21 FOR 2ND SEASON

Gettysburg's playground will open Monday, June 21, at 9 a. m., the Recreation Board announced last Friday. Fred P. Haehnlen and Miss Arlene Plank, supervisors at the playground last summer, have been renamed to those posts again this season, it was stated.

Paul A. Kinsey, president of the board, said last Friday that the officials of the playground look forward to attendance much greater than the 6,000 who used the facilities of the play center last year.

"The need for the playground is much greater this summer than during its first season last year," Mr. Kinsey said, "because of the increased employment of parents in industry and businesses. As a result more youngsters will probably use the playground."

The grounds will be open during ten weeks this year, with the closing date set for August 28. No formal opening exercises have been planned for the first day at the play center on the high school property.

Two new pieces of equipment have been added, a small slide for the smaller youngsters and a "Jungle Jim," a series of metal pipes fastened together to allow youngsters to climb about at will.

Several basketball uprights and nets have been promised and will be installed later this summer if they arrive, Mr. Kinsey said. Softball, volleyball and quota equipment is ready for installation.

Handicraft will assume a more important role this year, it was stated. A large amount of equipment has been secured for handicraft work to be given under the direction of the supervisors.

Members of the board include Mr. Kinsey, Ray M. Hoffman, treasurer; Mahlon P. Hartzell, secretary; Ralph Z. Oyer and Elmer W. Warren. An advisory group comprising Eugene V. Bulleit, Esq., the Rev. Dwight F. Putman and the Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock has been provided for the board. The board was established last year by joint action of the town council, the school board and a local committee.

GETS DEFERMENT

The classification of John Albertus Senti, 122 M street, Littleton, has been changed by the area Board of Appeals from 1A to 2A and he has been granted a six-month deferment, it was announced Thursday by Draft Board No. 1 at New Oxford.

WHISTLE BLAST FOR PARADE IS CAUSE OF CRASH

The blast of a whistle that signalled the start of the Memorial Day parade at York Springs Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock set off a series of unscheduled events that nearly resulted seriously for Burgess Steele Stuehl and the Memorial speaker, the Rev. Earl N. Rowe, York Springs Methodist pastor.

When Band Leader Dale Roth sounded his whistle, Burgess Stuehl's horse, harnessed to a buggy in which the town's first citizen and the Rev. Mr. Rowe were to ride in the procession, bolted. The Burgess, who held the lines, attempted to check the animal and the bit broke. The careening buggy side-swiped an automobile and then hit a pole, demolishing the vehicle and throwing both parade officials to the ground. The horse ran away but was caught later.

Walked To Cemetery

The Rev. Mr. Rowe walked to the Lutheran church cemetery where the exercises were held. He delivered his address before a large crowd, pronounced the benediction, and then visited the office of Dr. William Flickinger to make sure his injuries were no more serious than brush burns and bruises. Burgess Stuehl escaped with a shaking up.

The Music Auxiliary of the York Springs high school sponsored the exercises. The procession formed at the high school grounds, followed the main street to the intersection with the Gettysburg-Harrisburg highway and then counter-marched to the Lutheran cemetery where the program was held.

Auxiliary Dorothy Mansberger, York Springs, a member of the WAAC, marched in the procession which included school children, members of the IOOF, members of York Springs churches and Sunday schools, Girl Scouts and the York Springs band.

Grantas Hoopert presided at the exercises. E. S. Guise gave the invocation and the Rev. Mr. Rowe the benediction.

The parade was described as "larger than last year" and the crowd at the cemetery also exceeded expectations.

EXPECT LIGHT APPLE YIELD THIS SEASON

The 1943 apple crop in Adams county will be much lighter than was indicated earlier in the season and may amount to only about 60 per cent of the 1942 yield, members of the Adams County Fruit Growers' association agreed at their May meeting, Thursday evening, in the Biglerville community building. Robert C. Lott, Aspers, the vice president, presided with about 90 fruitmen in attendance.

A heavy bloom had promised a big yield this season, the orchardists stated, but the extended period of cold weather during the blossom period is believed responsible for the comparatively light "set" of fruit that has appeared. Early varieties and Staymans are specially affected, according to reports presented at the meeting.

State College specialists told the county growers that the apple yield of the entire state of Pennsylvania is going to be considerably lighter than was forecast earlier.

John O. Pepper, entomologist from State College, discussed with the growers the present insect conditions in peach and apple orchards and also referred to summer spray schedules. Dr. George L. Zundel, extension pathologist, reported on scab and brown rot infestation he found in orchards in the county.

M. T. Hartman, county farm agent who is heading up the farm labor organization in the county this season, discussed with the growers steps that already have been taken to meet farm and orchard labor needs and outlined present plans for the remaining months of the farming season.

No date was set for the next meeting of the fruitmen.

Lt. Jeanne Hoffman Home From Pacific

Lieutenant Jeanne E. Hoffman, daughter of Mrs. Gilbert Hoffman, Gettysburg, has returned from the southwest Pacific where for the last 16 months she has served at Army posts together with a group of Army nurses from Pennsylvania. The group arrived recently in San Francisco.

Gets Commission As Naval Ensign

Richard A. Polkenroth, Gettysburg, a member of the faculty at the Lincoln school, has received his commission as ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. Polkenroth was sworn into office on Saturday at the Naval Officer Procurement Division, Philadelphia, and is now awaiting call to active duty at a Naval training center.

VOLUME OF AIR MAIL MOUNTING AT LOCAL P.O.

Figures compiled recently in connection with the observance of the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the Air Mail Pickup service across Pennsylvania showed that the volume of mail dispatched from the local post office in the last two years via the pickup service nearly quadrupled.

Acting Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyer last Friday released figures that estimate the number of pieces of air mail picked up here by the cross-country flights last month at 3,830, or more than 100 per day.

In April, 1941, the total pickup here was 975 pieces and last year the figure was 1,364 for April.

In January of this year 1,219 pieces of air mail were dispatched from Gettysburg via the pickup service while 256 pieces were received. In the same month, the 31 post offices served on the cross-state route which serves Gettysburg dispatched 220,415 pieces of air mail and received 178,029. Only at Pittsburgh and Philadelphia offices did the number of pieces received exceed the number dispatched.

Covered 2,700,000 Miles

While the air mail service itself marked its twenty-fifth anniversary this month, the pickup mail service started only four years ago as an experiment. Since the war began, great progress has been made in adapting the air pickup system for military purposes in picking up troop and cargo gliders.

Richard C. duPont, first president of All American Aviation who visited Gettysburg several times during the early days of the pickup service here, now is a special assistant to the commanding general of the Army Air Forces in charge of the glider program.

In the four years the air mail pickup system has completed nearly 2,700,000 miles of flying during which 225,000 pickups and deliveries have been made without injury to personnel and without serious mishap to aircraft or cargo. In spite of all-year weather conditions, nearly 93 per cent of schedules have been kept, an anniversary statement reveals.

SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPING TRIP

Boy Scout troops 77 and 78 took part in an intertroop camp on Wolf Hill over the week-end, with the camp starting Friday evening and ending Sunday morning.

Three patrols from Troop 77, the Eagle, Panther and Pine Tree, made up that contingent. Herbert Sollenberger was patrol leader for the Eagle patrol with four members present. Sydney Poppay, Jr., was patrol leader for the Panther patrol with eight on hand, and Jack Ridinger, acting patrol leader for the Pine Tree group with three scouts.

The eleven scouts from Troop 78 present were divided into two patrols, the Eagle, headed by Patrol Leader Joseph Redding and the Flying Eagle with Pete Kuhn as patrol leader.

Officials at the camp included Scoutmaster Jack Cessa of Troop 77, and Scoutmaster Edward Kerrigan and Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Baitzley of Troop 78.

Among activities at the camp, which was planned and directed by the patrol leaders were council fires, flag raising ceremonies, a hike to Cavalry field and games.

Both troops are planning another intertroop camp this summer at which a patrol of scouts from Columbia under the direction of William Ridinger will be special guests, it was stated.

AIR CORPS CANDIDATE

Henry W. Garvin, Jr., Gettysburg, was among those who completed their advanced ROTC training at Lehigh university, Bethlehem, and was granted a certificate of candidacy for commission at the recent commencement exercises. Garvin has been certified as a candidate for officers' training in the Air Corps.

New Commander

Major General Robert C. Richardson, who has been named as the new commander of the Hawaiian department of the U.S. Army, takes his new post June 1. General Richardson, who succeeds Lieut. General Delos C. Emmons, was the Gettysburg college commencement speaker in 1941.

STOVE BLAST DAMAGES HOME HERE SUNDAY

An estimated $1,000 damage was caused to the home of Ralph Shultz, Gettysburg, by fire, believed by firemen to have been caused by the explosion of a kerosene stove in an outkitchen of the house.

All furniture and other articles on the first and second floors of the home were either destroyed by flames or heavily damaged by fire and water, firemen said. The fire burned through a partition on the west side of the Shultz house to the second floor of the adjoining home of John Ray. There was little damage to the Ray home.

Threatens Other Homes

The Shultz home is the first of four houses in a row with an open attic connecting all four houses. Firemen fought the blaze from the attic to prevent its spreading into the open section and setting fire to the entire row.

Nearly $90 in cash was destroyed during the fire. A pocketbook containing $47 belonging to Walter Riley, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Shultz, and $40 in a handbag owned by Mrs. Shultz were burned.

Miss Sylvia Shultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shultz discovered the fire when she returned home from church. Mrs. Shultz is said to have left the house to visit neighbors a short time before her daughter returned. She said she had turned out the kerosene stove before leaving but believed that the stove, which had caused trouble previously, had continued to burn.

The firemen fought the flames about 40 minutes before getting the flames under control. The entire rear section of the house was aflame when the fire was discovered.

FACES CHARGE AFTER ACCIDENT

carrier, will be charged before Justice of the Peace John H. Bashore with reckless driving, Borough Officer L. E. Wisler said Wednesday as a result of a "visit" Tuesday evening by Robert's auto to the YWCA building, Gettysburg.

Rebert was driving around center square near Chambersburg street and was about to turn into Baltimore street when, he told Officer Wisler, something went wrong with the car. The machine hit the center square plot curbing, mounted the pavement near the light pole at the intersection with Baltimore street, knocked down a pipe fence at the Kadel building and came to a stop, about 60 feet from where it mounted the curb, in front of the YWCA building.

The car was towed from the square. Three of the four tires blew out during the trip. No estimate was made of damage to the Rebert car. John H. Kadel, owner of the Kadel building, said damage to the fence was $50.

ESTATE BOND FILED

An administration bond has been entered at the court house in the estate of the late Harvey C. Bream, late of Latimore township, by the administrator of the $5,500 estate, a son, William H. Bream, York Springs R. D.

ESCAPES FROM DAMAGED PLANE OVER PACIFIC

Trapped in a rear cockpit of a crippled torpedo plane over Guadalcanal, PFC Earl C. Jacobs, East Berlin, made his escape through a hole blasted in the plane shortly afterward by a Japanese aircraft.

This is revealed in a story told by PFC Jacobs at a naval hospital somewhere in the South Pacific where he is now recovering from malaria. He was uninjured in the air battle. The interview with PFC Jacobs has been sent out for publication by the Marines.

"I was a gunner in a torpedo bomber," PFC Jacobs related, "and it was my first combat flight. We were to attack a Japanese convoy northwest of Guadalcanal but before we reached our target we were hit."

"The plane began to drop fast and the other gunner and myself could not get forward because a shell from a Jap plane had smashed one side of the plane against the other, blocking the door. The side door, too, was jammed."

"We told the pilot we were trapped and that he'd better bale out, so he left through the top door. We stayed in the rear wondering what was going to happen."

"Our plane was still falling when a Jap plane let us have it again. His shot ripped the seat from under the other gunner and he fell through the hole. It made a perfect opening for me to bale out and I left in a hurry."

"I landed in the water after a long drop in my parachute and was floating unconscious. I held him up until the pilot swam to us with a rubber boat which he had taken down with him. We were picked up later by a Navy flying boat."

"We couldn't figure out how the other gunner had managed to open his chute. Probably he remained conscious long enough to pull the rip cord. I was the luckiest of the three, getting off without a scratch. The pilot had a broken leg and the gunner a broken arm."

PFC Jacobs, who is 25 years old, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Jacobs, East Berlin. He enlisted in the Marines in January, 1942.

The young soldier is a grandson of the late Henry Jacobs, long time burgess of East Berlin.

TRAFFIC HERE IS AT LOW EBB

New restrictions of the OPA cut Memorial Day week-end traffic to the lowest since general use of the automobile over Saturday and Sunday.

Members of the local state police detail patrolling roads in the county reported seeing only a very few cars. Observers said the amount of traffic in some sections was lighter than a usual week-day with only two or three cars passing during the day.

Captain Carl F. Taute, supt. of the National cemetery, Gettysburg, reported only six guided tours passing through the cemetery Sunday and a like number Saturday. Last year, when rationing was nearly as stringent as at the present time, 24 guided tours passed through the park on Sunday.

About 200 cars and three buses entered the cemetery Sunday, many of them filled with soldiers. Most of the traffic in the National park Sunday was pedestrian, with well over 300 people walking through the cemetery, Captain Taute said.

County Gives $150 Toward Honor Roll

The Adams county commissioners have donated $150 towards the erection of the memorial honor roll listing of those from the county in the armed forces during World War II, it was announced Friday.

The commissioners reached that decision Wednesday when the county group was asked to join with organizations from throughout the county in raising the $600 necessary for the construction of the marker.

Inspection of a bridge near Brown's dam over the Conewago was among other activities of the county governing body. A donation of $3 was made towards the purchase of colors for the 55th College Training Detachment at the college.

A communication was received announcing a meeting in Gettysburg the week of June 7 of government agents for the purpose of explaining priorities needed for governmental requirements for maintenance.

WILL TRAIN GAS OFFICERS FOR RAID DUTY

At least seven of the 11 boroughs in the county will have representatives at the Gas school to be held in Gettysburg June 8 and June 15 under the direction of Dr. John B. Zinn, head of the chemistry department at Gettysburg college, it was announced Tuesday by the Adams County Council of Defense.

Each of the classes will be held in the science hall at the college at 7:30 o'clock. It is expected that representatives will also be sent from the four other boroughs.

Those attending the schools will be named as gas officers for their boroughs and will have two duties. It was stated. The gas officers will be charged with instructing the people of their own community in methods of recognizing and combating gas warfare and will be assigned to the control centers during raids to identify gases and see that proper protective means have been adopted in the event gas is dropped in their community.

Doctor Zinn will be assisted in the teaching by Fred P. Haehnlen, Gettysburg; Robert Sheeds, New Oxford; the Rev. D. S. Kammerer, Littleton, and J. Vincent Hawbecker, Biglerville, who recently attended a gas instruction course given by the state civilian defense officials.

Among those selected to attend the school are: Abbottstown, Emory Alwine and Robert Berkhimer; Biglerville, Samuel Ehlman; East Berlin, C. D. Krout and Ira Lobaugh; Fairfield, J. Warren Martin and Arthur M. Moore; Gettysburg, Fred P. Haehnlen and C. Paul Cessa; Littleton, Harold S. Roberts and Paul E. King; McSherrystown, Edward F. Fuhrman and Joseph R. Adams.

2 LOCAL GIRLS GIVEN HONORS

Two Gettysburg girls were awarded prizes Tuesday at the annual graduation exercises held at Saint Joseph's college high school at Emmitsburg.

Miss Barbara Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Flynn, Baltimore street, was awarded a short-hand prize while Miss Evelyn Redding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Redding, Gettysburg R. D., won an award for excellence in Christian doctrine.

Two other Gettysburg girls, Marjorie Elizabeth Cunningham, of South Washington street, and Helen Louise Hemler, Hanover street, were also among the graduating class.

Speaker at the commencement was Herbert R. O'Connor, governor of Maryland.

Local Cadet Takes Last Pilot Course

Aviation Cadet Harvey J. Yingst, 325 South Washington street, has entered the final stage of the Army Air Force's pilot training course at Frederick Army Air Field, Okla., one of the Gulf Coast Training Center's newest twin-engine schools for the training of Uncle Sam's bomber pilots.

Upon completion of nine weeks instruction in the twin-engine bomber trainers, Cadet Yingst will be awarded the silver wings of an Army Air Force pilot and a commission as second lieutenant or appointment as flight officer and then assigned to a tactical unit.

AT MICHIGAN FIELD

Lieutenant Raymond J. Quick, graduate of Gettysburg college in the class of 1935, has been assigned to duty at Selfridge Field, Michigan, with the Army Air Corps.

9-YEAR-OLD BOY DROWNS FRIDAY IN ATTEMPT TO LEARN TO SWIM

Robert Granville Fridinger, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Fridinger, Gettysburg, drowned Friday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock in the brickyard quarry northwest of Gettysburg.

The body of the youngster was recovered forty minutes later by Richard Whittinghill, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Whittinghill, Eberhart apartments, a high school freshman, who, together with two other Gettysburg youths, Andrew Larson and Charles Kranias, dived for the body shortly after their arrival at the scene.

Whittinghill found the youngster on the first dive, about ten feet from the bank of the quarry from which young Fridinger is reported to have dived in an attempt to swim.

The youngster's clothes and glasses were piled neatly on the bank. He was unable to swim, his mother said Saturday, and had gone with neighborhood boys to the quarry after returning from school Friday afternoon.

Wanted to Learn

The four boys with him said they had tried to dissuade Robert from swimming when he announced his intention of getting into the water, but he decided he would "try to learn to swim."

The youths said young Fridinger's head appeared above the water several times after he dove in and he could be seen crying. One of the youngsters is reported to have tried to help the boy, but was unable to reach him.

When they saw Robert was drowning, the youths, aged between six and ten years, ran toward town to a garage of J. I. Herer, near the quarry, where they told Mr. Herer that "Bobby" was drowning. Mr. Herer called Chief of Police Glenn Guise while an employee of his raced to the brickyard pond to see if he could rescue the youngster. When they arrived there was no sign of the lad.

Firemen Aid

Members of the fire company responded with a fire truck to assist, if possible, in the rescue.

Whittinghill, Larson and Kranias arrived at the scene some time later and Larson suggested the three boys, all of them excellent swimmers, dive for the body. All three dove in an effort to cover all of the surrounding waters.

After Whittinghill recovered the body Arthur Buehler attempted artificial respiration, but found that the youngster had been in the water too long.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said death was caused by drowning.

Young Fridinger is survived by his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. John Caskey, Gettysburg; Miss Betty Fridinger, Hagerstown; Pfc. Charles F. Fridinger, U. S. Army, Vancouver, Washington; and Mary Louise, Virginia Lee, Norman Eugene, Shirley Ann and Ronald Edward, at home, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Moser, Gettysburg.

Funeral services were held Monday at 10 a. m. from the Bender home, with the Rev. Ralph R. Gresh officiating. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

MELLOTT'S GO TO STATE COURT

An appeal to set aside an opinion of the Adams county court in the action brought by B. Rush Mellott, Gettysburg R. 5, and his son, Nelson, against Mrs. Katherine Tuckey, Wrensville, has been instituted with the state Superior court, it was learned today.

The county court's opinion, handed down April 17, found that no damages could be paid Ellyott Mellott for injuries suffered in a collision with Mrs. Tuckey's machine because, the opinion stated, Mellott was negligent in the operation of his car.

The appeal to Superior court made by John P. Butt, Esq., for the Mellotts holds that young Mellott was not negligent and that the accident was caused by the negligence of Mrs. Tuckey. The appeal asks that the opinion of county court be set aside allowing re-opening of the case here. The matter will be brought before the Superior court either at Harrisburg or Philadelphia. An attempt is being made to have it made one of the first matters to be brought before the court during its forthcoming session.

474 PUPILS IN ADAMS COUNTY PASS H.S. EXAMS

Patricia Meyer, Biglerville, and Wilbur H. Miller, New Oxford, each scored 364 points out of a possible 400 to secure the highest mark among the 474 Adams county eighth graders who passed the final high school entrance examination, County Superintendent J. Floyd Slaybaugh has announced. The test was held May 15.

The record of the two youths, who were described by their teachers as having done "outstanding" work during their eight years in grammar school, was 20 points higher than the highest mark attained last year in a similar test having the same number of points.

The 490 youths who took the test at the seven county high schools and at Lincoln school here, were both better and worse than last year's 491 students. The lowest mark scored by a county youth this year was 41; the lowest last year 61. A total of 26 students, or less than six per cent failed to make a passing mark in the test.

FLYING SCHOOL QUALIFIES FOR 2 CERTIFICATES

The Gettysburg School of Aeronautics has been awarded two air agency certificates by the United States Department of Commerce, Civil Aeronautics administration, giving it the rating of a "Primary and Advanced Flying school," and a rating of "Primary and Advanced Flying school" to operate "in conjunction with Gettysburg college (ground)."

Richard Bircher, proprietor and manager of the flying school here and the airport on the Mummasburg road, received the certificates from Paul E. Young, administrator.

In awarding the certificates to the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics Administrator Young stated that the local flying school had "satisfied all the requirements of the civil air regulations."

The ratings will continue in effect indefinitely and provide the authority for Mr. Bircher to operate his airport as a primary and advanced flying school in conjunction with his ground school.

"This authority is predicated upon the continued maintenance of facilities, equipment and personnel at least equal in quality and quantity to those required for the issuance of the certificate and the standard of performance required by the civil air regulations," the announcement stated.

All the flight training and ground school work cadets of the 55th College Training Detachment of the Army Air Corps at Gettysburg college is done at the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics.

Members of the detachment received a specified minimum number of hours of flying before completing the course here and then are sent to an advanced base.

Government Citation Presented To Gettysburg Times For "Distinguished" Service Rendered War Savings Drives

The United States Treasury department has awarded a citation to The Gettysburg Times "for distinguished services rendered in behalf of the War Savings program."

The citation, beautifully engraved, was signed by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the Treasury.

In accepting the "citation" The Gettysburg Times gratefully shares this honor with its many advertisers who have cooperated in the various war bond and stamp selling promotion campaigns.

Depend on Newspapers

It is generally recognized that a goodly portion of the work involved in promoting and encouraging the purchase of war bonds and stamps to finance the most expensive venture in the history of any nation at any time has fallen to the lot of the newspapers.

Unlike the campaign for Victory bonds in the first world war the current war campaigns are financed by newspapers and individual advertisers. Of course, the tremendous volunteer service of the war bond and stamp committeemen and women has been of invaluable aid in the actual sales.

Recognize Advertisers

Throughout the war The Gettysburg Times has opened its news and advertising columns to the government in the successful promotion of the war effort.

The advertising columns have carried a tremendous amount of copy through the various campaigns and drives and Gettysburg and Adams county advertisers have lent their whole-hearted cooperation with The Gettysburg Times in forwarding the cause in this area.

The combined effort of these agencies have resulted in this signal recognition from the Treasury department.

Although the citation is presented to The Gettysburg Times it represents an expression of appreciation from the Government to each and every advertiser in Adams county's only daily newspaper for their all-out support of the campaign to finance this war.

The citation has been framed and is on display in the business offices of The Times.

UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT

For distinguished services rendered in behalf of the War Savings Program this citation is awarded to

The Gettysburg Times

Lumber Available For Farm Needs

To relieve farmers' lumber needs for essential farm repair and construction, necessary to keep the nation's farm plant in working order to meet expanded wartime crop and livestock production demands, the War Production board has extended preference rating for delivery of 500,000,000 board feet of lumber on authorized purchase certificates. Farm dwellings are excluded.

Under the terms of the program, WPB will extend an AA-2 preference rating for the lumber during June, July and August. The distribution phase will be the responsibility of the War Food Administration, which will be implemented through the County Farm Rating committees of the County USDA War boards.

Height Minimum For Navy Lowered

The Navy Tuesday dropped its minimum height requirement for enlistment in the Naval Reserve from five feet two inches to five feet.

Other modified physical standards now also permit acceptance of some men previously rejected for poor eyesight and dental defects, Chief J. C. Diehl, York, recruiter in charge, said.

Applicants previously rejected on these points were invited by Chief Diehl to reapply for enlistment. Age limits are 17 to 18 and 38 to 50 years.

Skilled workmen of draft age are eligible to apply for voluntary induction into the "Seabees" the Navy's Construction Battalions.

H. W. MILLER IS SELECTED FOR FARM LABOR JOB

Herbert W. Miller, Biglerville R. 1, former grade and high school teacher at Biglerville and a life-long farmer, has been suggested to State College for appointment as field agent for the Emergency Farm Employment office here, it was learned today.

Mr. Miller began his work Tuesday subject to approval by the board of trustees of Pennsylvania State college, which will be his employer. The appointment was suggested by the new county Farm Labor committee.

Mrs. C. Richard Bennett, Littlestown R. 1, has started her duties as secretary at the office, subject to final appointment by state college.

The new field agent resigned from the Biglerville school system a week ago after serving in various capacities since 1936. He was principal of the Biglerville grade schools until last year when he became a teacher of mathematics at the high school.

Has Started Survey

A graduate of Biglerville high school and Shippensburg state teachers' college, he has taken post graduate courses in education at Western Maryland.

He is a son of John W. Miller, Gettysburg R. 5, and spent his early years on the farm. Each summer he has worked on the farm and during the last several years actively managed his own 77-acre farm in Straban township where he conducts general and stock farming. He is married, the father of one child.

Mrs. Bennett is a graduate of Littlestown high school and has spent all of her life on a farm. She is a daughter of Mrs. Syrenia Eckenrode, Littlestown R. 2. Her husband, C. Richard Bennett, was recently honorably discharged from the army because of ill health.

Mr. Miller already has started a survey of the farm needs of the county and is urging all persons, especially those who can work part-time on farms, to place their name on file at the office on Baltimore street, near the court house.

Court Order In Liquidation Case

An order has been handed down by the county court in the equity proceedings in the liquidation of the Citizens' Trust company directing the heirs of C. W. Gardner and the estate of P. M. Musselman to appoint representatives in the proceedings.

The order states that if no representatives have been appointed the court will name a disinterested representative, June 19. Gardner, one of the defendants in the action, died recently while Musselman, another defendant, has been declared bankrupt.

Court Refuses To Set Claim Aside

An opinion has been handed down by the Adams county court overruling the motion of the Citizen's Oil company of Gettysburg to strike off the statement of claim of Joseph A. Davis, York Springs, in an action in assumpsit in which Davis is suing the oil company for damages suffered by him when a gasoline pump exploded February 24, 1941, at a service station owned by W. Park Steel along the Lincoln highway, three miles west of New Oxford.

The opinion grants the oil company 15 days in which to file an affidavit of defense.

According to the statement of claim filed by Davis, an oil company representative replaced a permanent switch and motor in one of three gasoline pumps at the Steel service station with a temporary switch. Davis, employed at the station, after serving a customer's car, turned off the switch and the gas tank exploded causing serious burns to Davis' face, hands, arms and scalp. As a result of the accident he has lost use of his right hand and wrist, Davis claims.

May Use Gas To Learn About Cheese

Because of the educational purpose of the cheese making demonstration to be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Rose Murren, near Brushstown, persons wishing to attend the session can drive their cars if there is absolutely no other way to attend, Miss Mildred Adams, county home economics representative, said she had learned Tuesday.

I. E. Parkin, State College extension specialist, will be in charge of the demonstration of how to make cheese, one of the foods most highly placed among the nation's needs.

WASTE BASKET FIRE

Firemen were called at 8:30 o'clock this morning to extinguish a fire in a waste basket at the home of Harmon Furney, 218 West Middle street.

O. H. BENSON TO RESIGN AS SCRAP HEAD IN COUNTY

County Salvage Chairman O. H. Benson announced Tuesday that he has resigned his position as chairman effective late in July, due to ill health.

He and Mrs. Benson have sold their home, "Loma Vista," to Mr. and Mrs. Milo Gallingier, Hartland, Michigan. At the same time the Bensons have purchased a home at Winter Haven, Florida, where they will spend part of the coming year.

They plan to visit throughout the country during the coming year before returning to their farm near McKnightstown, next spring. Mr. and Mrs. Benson moved to "Loma Vista" from Washington, D. C., in 1929.

Mr. Benson has headed the salvage program in Adams county ever since that program was set up here nearly two years ago. Nearly 500 tons of scrap materials, including metals, tin cans, fats, silk and nylon, paper, rubber and rags, were collected in Adams county during May, Mr. Benson reported today.

224 Lbs. Per Person

The report, based on incomplete returns from various committees, showed that 27 1/4 tons of metals, 18 1/2 tons of tin cans, 4,152 pounds of household fats, 680 pounds of silk and nylon hose, 89 tons of paper, 14 1/2 tons of rubber and 2,114 pounds of rags were collected during May.

CREDIT WOLFF FOR SUCCESS OF ATHLETICS

By TED MEIER

Philadelphia, Penna. (AP)—A screwball has put the Philadelphia Athletics in the American league's first division, only two and a half games out of first place.

The screwball is the one that Roger Wolff added to his pitching repertoire this year.

The Athletics are in fourth place, with 20 wins and 19 defeats, and Wolff's record shows five wins and two losses. But that isn't the whole story. He has saved four games for Jess Flores, and thus is responsible for nine of the Athletics' 20 triumphs, or nearly 50 per cent.

Without Wolff, in other words, the A's likely would be in the cellar.

Good in Relief

"Roger is pitching great ball, all right," says Earle Brucker, A's coach in charge of the pitchers. "He's a willing worker. He can either start or go in as relief, which is a much tougher job with nothing to gain and everything to lose."

"A year's experience has helped him a lot. He still has that knuckleball he threw last year, but he has added a screwball. His good control makes him pretty difficult."

Wolff, on the other hand, gives shortstop Irv Hall and third sacker Eddie May credit for much of his success. "They're snaring the balls that went for hits last year," he says.

Roger's next outing will be against the Cleveland Indians on Sunday. So far he has allowed 58 hits, given 19 walks and fanned 12 in 61 innings.

BUMS' RUSH GETS BARTLEY

Chicago, Illinois (AP)—Boyd Bartley, one of the best college baseball prospects since Dick Wakefield, no sooner had left the University of Illinois campus than he was rushed by both the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Dodgers—and the Bums' rush got him.

As captain and shortstop at Illinois this season, Bartley batted a ferocious .460 in 14 games and was regarded as the best hustler afield since Lou Boudreau, who skyrocketed from the same campus to manager-ship of the Cleveland Indians.

But it was only last week that the 22-year-old college star proved just how well he really gets around. Thursday he worked out at Wrigley field and had Cub officials bug-eyed as he whipped the ball around the bases. Twenty-four hours later he had caught up with the Dodgers in Pittsburgh and was nailed to a contract—receiving a "substantial bonus" for signing.

New Office Hours At Ration Boards

For the accommodation of defense workers who are employed seven days a week and find it inconvenient or impossible to visit their local rationing board office during the day, special office hours have been announced for Tuesday and Thursday evenings, it was announced Thursday.

The local board office and that at New Oxford will be open from 7 to 8:30 p. m. on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in addition to the regular schedule of hours during the day. The offices are open regularly from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. excepting Saturdays when the offices open at 9 a. m. and close at noon.

Board Reclassifying Married Men At N. O.

The Draft Board at New Oxford now is engaged in reclassifying married men with wives only.

A board announcement asked that employers check over their list of employees of draft age and if they have any key men in essential activities and occupations they are requested to file the form for deferment prior to the registrant's reclassification. These forms then will receive consideration while the registrant is being reclassified, it was stated.

"By cooperating with the board in this respect much time will be saved and unnecessary work eliminated," the board announcement stated.

Will Demonstrate Cheese Making

A cheese making demonstration, one of the few ever held in Adams county, has been scheduled for 7:30 o'clock this Friday evening, it was announced today by Miss Mildred L. Adams, county home economics representative.

I. E. Parkin, state college extension specialist, will be in charge of the demonstration to be held at the home of Mrs. Rose Murren, near Brunshtown. The demonstration is open to all interested persons in the county.

William M. Boyer, Gettysburg, and Viola Amos, Hagerstown, have secured a marriage license in Hagerstown.

Army Will Take Eyrych From Phils

Pittsburgh, Pa. (AP)—The

Phillies outbid five other clubs for George L. Eyrych, 18-year-old pitching wonder from Reading, Pa., but the Army stands to get him instead.

Eyrych reported Saturday to Bill Cox's club, which lured him away—by a substantial bonus—from the Athletics, Detroit, Red Sox, Cardinals and Brooklyn.

But today he reports for his final physical examination and if he passes it will join two brothers in the armed forces.

Coached by Manny Jacobs of Reading high and Fred Carls, former International league pitcher, Eyrych, who struck out 79 men in winning six games this year, is regarded by many as a second Bob Feller.

TEACHERS VOTE $60 TO N. E. A.

At a meeting of the teachers of Gettysburg public schools, held in the high school building last Thursday afternoon, the teachers as members of the National Education association and Pennsylvania State Education association, decided to contribute $60 to the National Education association for the NEA War and Peace Fund.

The goal set for the United States is $600,000, for Pennsylvania, $46,400, and for Gettysburg $60. The NEA executive committee plans to give to the state education association one-third of the amount raised in the state.

"The fund will be used over a period of years for emergency activities, such as securing and maintaining adequate salaries for teachers during and after the war; obtaining action to correct grade educational deficiencies revealed by Selective Service; seeking adequate financial support of education on local, state and national bases; safeguarding the integrity of the schools against the tendency of other agencies to take over their functions; fostering legislative and administrative measures to deal with rapidly increasing juvenile delinquency, and working for an educational representative at the peace table and for the establishment of an international office of education," a spokesman said.

Lloyd R. Hartman, president of the Gettysburg branch of the PSEA, presided at the meeting, which was called primarily to consider the appeal made by the National Education association.

L. C. Keefe, superintendent of schools, and G. W. Lefever, high school principal, called attention to probable changes for the coming school year and to recent state legislation providing for an increase in teachers' salaries.

ROTARY PLANS LADIES' NIGHT

A "non-Aryan" doctor-of-laws who acted as corporation counsel for a Swiss firm in Germany during five years of Hitler's totalitarian regime will be the speaker Monday evening at the Ladies' Night program to be held by Rotary at the Hotel Gettysburg.

The German-born lawyer, Dr. Leonhard Guenther, who fled Germany in 1938, will speak on "Five Long Years Under Hitler." Doctor Guenther, now in process of becoming an American citizen, will describe how he had to secure a "temporary" permit to work as a corporation lawyer and the speedy decline of law and justice under the totalitarian rule.

Captain John R. Coshey, commandant of the 55th College Training Detachment of the Air Corps, and four of the group leaders have been invited to attend the dinner as guests of the Rotarians.

The dinner will begin at 6:15 o'clock.

Motorists Urged To Have Cars Inspected

The Department of Revenue today reminded motor vehicle owners that the semi-annual inspection period is again in full swing and urged car owners not to delay in complying with this legal safety requirement.

Official inspection began May 1 and the new red keystone sticker should by now appear in the lower right hand corner of the car windshield.

A serious shortage of garage mechanics, a thousand less inspection stations operating than a year ago, difficulty in obtaining parts for repairs and the problem of travel presented by federal rationing were reasons advanced by the Revenue department in urging motorists to avoid delay in having their cars inspected.

Under the law there can be no extension of the inspection period from the July 31 deadline.

14-DAY FURLONGS

Fourteen-day furloughs will be granted inductees entering the armed forces through the Harrisburg induction station on or after June 7, Lt. Col. George H. Hafer, acting state selective service director, has informed draft boards.

BILL COX IS BIGGEST TRADER

Chicago, (AP)—The biggest trader in baseball today? It's young Bill Cox, new owner of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Since purchasing the Phils less than four months ago, the wealthy 33-year-old lumberman has added 12 players, parted with four and disposed of some of his ready cash—all probably behind-the-scenes handiwork of veteran Bucky Harris, new field generalissimo of the Phils and a "boy wonder" in his own time.

Even so, Cox's only counterpart today is Branch Rickey, ex-St. Louis Card and present Brooklyn boss. In their one face off, young Cox walked off with four Dodgers without giving up a player at a time Master Swapper Rickey had eyes on several Phillies.

And Tuesday in a straight swap of outfielders with the St. Louis Cards he obtained three players—Coaker Triplett, Buster Adams and Dain Clay (who will report from the Cards' Rochester farm)—for his Danny Litwiler, a hitter whose clouting has fallen off recently, and Earl Naylor.

Today there already were rumors another Phil deal, involving Triplett, was in the offing.

That's fast work, but Cox says speed is an essential to success is the only thing about baseball of which he is certain. And speed, he added, was the main asset of all three players obtained Tuesday.

Littlestown Man Seeks County Office

LeRoy (Hammie) M. Wintrod, Littlestown, is the first member of either party to announce for the office of prothonotary of Adams county. A Democrat, he said today he will seek his party's nomination for the county post now filled by Lee M. Hartman, who expects to be called to duty with the Army soon. Mr. Wintrod, a former tax collector in Littlestown, was a candidate for the same office four years ago. He is employed at Schott's hotel in

ABBOTTSTOWN DEDICATES NEW AIR RAID SIREN OF GHS ALUMNI

Abbottstown dedicated its new $500 Air Raid siren at appropriate exercises on the lawn of the Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The new siren was purchased from funds voluntarily contributed by the residents of Abbottstown in a recent drive conducted by Norman Miller and Merel Sanders. All of the money was raised by voluntary donations.

The new siren has been placed on the roof of the J. E. Gentzler feed mill, on Lincoln Way west and is powered from the feed mill but controlled from the engine house where the Abbottstown control center is located.

The fire company will work out a coding system in an effort to use the new siren for fire calls as well as for air raid alarms. In event that the firemen are unable to use the siren for fire alarms it will be turned over to the fire company.

Judge W. C. Sheely was the principal speaker. He complimented the residents of Abbottstown for their aggressiveness and their public interest as well as for their wholehearted co-operation in the war effort. He said the war had made everybody more civic conscious and that Abbottstown residents had taken an active lead in the war effort. He stressed the importance of a good air raid alarm system in Abbottstown as an important link in the protection of the community, the state and the nation.

Four Boy Wardens

Lawrence Sheads, Chief Air Raid Warden, explained the purpose of blackouts and its importance in national protection. He also commented on the effectiveness of the recent blackout test which he viewed from an airplane in the Abbottstown vicinity.

Kenneth Hull, Communications Chief, complimented the town on its alertness and its promptness in responding to air raid calls. Father William Burke, of the Paradise Rectory, spoke of the cooperation at the Protectorate and introduced four boys whom he had selected to act as air raid wardens there.

In a test of the blue and red signals Judge Sheely was informed that the new siren had been clearly heard at the Protectorate.

George F. Zudrell, chairman of the Abbottstown Council of Defense, presided at the exercises. Other members of the council are W. W. Eisenhart, George W. Baker, Norman Miller and Mrs. W. W. Hafer.

Lou Novikoff and Phil Cavarretta of the Chicago Cubs holding a sick pigeon they had found at Wrigley Field and trying to pour medicine down its throat through a funnel made of paper.

Trainer Andy Lotshaw remarked after watching them: "That bird was hit with a line drive by one of our players—it ain't hurt much."

RAILROADS ARE SUBJECT FOR HISTORIANS

Meeting for their last session until September, members of the Adams County Historical society gathered in the court house library Tuesday evening, for a discussion of early transportation in this area led by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, program chairman, who presented a paper on "The Cumberland Valley Railroad, a Competitor of the Tapeworm Road."

Doctor Tilberg described first a plan to connect the Susquehanna and Potomac rivers with a canal in 1825. He described also the rivalry between Philadelphia and Baltimore for central and western Pennsylvania trade and of various efforts to build a railroad into the Cumberland valley.

In 1828, he said, a railroad route from Harrisburg to Chambersburg via Carlisle was surveyed and in 1831 the Cumberland Valley railroad was incorporated. The road was completed to Carlisle by 1837 and its first locomotive was hauled to Carlisle on a six-horse wagon.

Discussion that followed the paper brought from Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, society president, the observation that the Cumberland Valley was one of the oldest railroads in the country, was once considered among the nation's finest railroads and claimed the distinction of having used the first sleeping car.

Thaddeus Stevens' "tapeworm" line which was to reach to Gettysburg and not Caledonia, as is sometimes supposed, was described as a potential competitor of the CV line. The engineering undertaken on the "tapeworm" line was declared Tuesday to have been "monumental" and a small scale counterpart of the famous "horseshoe" curve near Altoona was to have been built.

It was pointed out that the present Western Maryland line west of here uses very little of the old "tapeworm" line route. The present line rounds Jacks mountain at a level about 200 feet below that of Stevens' railroad for which the state appropriated $700,000, drawing the attacks of Stevens' political enemies.

Members of the society suggested that the group should make a trip to the "tapeworm" right-of-way for an inspection as soon as it can be arranged.

A general discussion developed around the subject of early transportation in the county. It was pointed out that while the railroad connecting Gettysburg and Harrisburg was completed in 1884, the Western Maryland was not extended west of here until 1889. Gettysburg had railroad connections to the east 30 years earlier.

It was announced Tuesday evening that some furniture already has been placed in the society's new museum quarters in the court house basement and that the new quarters are expected to be ready for occupancy by September when the society resumes monthly meetings.

York Hotel Man Beaten To Death

York, June 1.—Gesuado Facchinell, 52, proprietor of the Eagle hotel, was beaten to death in the barroom of the hotel between 8:30 and 8:45 o'clock Monday evening by two unknown men who may be workers on the "Big Inch" oil pipeline being laid through York county.

The identity of the men, who had not been apprehended at an early hour this morning, is not known but an investigation conducted by District Attorney W. Burg Anstine revealed that descriptions have been secured and sent out over the police teletype. Searching parties of constables, deputy sheriffs and city police have been organized under the direction of County Detective William Kasparovich and are seeking the slayers.

Road Funds Will Be Paid By State

Checks totaling $14,604.35 are being issued from the office of State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner at Harrisburg, it was announced, to cover 21 second class townships in Adams county their second quarterly installment of monies due them this year from the Commonwealth for highway and bridge work.

The Act of August 6, 1941, appropriated $10,000,000 out of the motor license fund to pay these townships the state's share of maintenance, construction, surfacing and improvement of roads and the maintenance, construction and reconstruction of bridges. The act specifies quarterly payments on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1.

The amounts due townships in this county follow:

Berwick, $204.79; Butler, $805.75; Conowing, $215.38; Cumberland, $753.96; Franklin, $1,386.46; Freedom, $306.01; Germany, $409.58; Hamilton, $520.22; Hamiltonban, $579.06; Highland, $381.33; Huntingdon, $1,061.62; Latimore, $956.11; Liberty, $480.20; Menallen, $927.45; Mt. Joy, $979.24; Mt. Pleasant, $1,072.22; Oxford, $311.90; Reading, $906.18; Straban, $896.85; Tyrone, $852.60; Union, $438.44.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hennings, of Gettysburg, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital Thursday.

5-Lb. Limit On Preserving Sugar

The Local War Price and Rationing board has announced that the maximum allotment for preserving sugar is five pounds per person. This five pounds comes out of the 25 pound maximum allotment for each person for the year, March, 1943, to March, 1944.

The boards will not issue any sugar certificates to any family unit whose number 15 and 16 stamps have not been used. These stamps are valid for five pounds each, and should take care of the canning and preserving needs of a great many families, the board believes.

In making application for canning and preserving sugar, family units should apply for the full amount they desire. The boards will make allowance for the ten pounds to be secured by stamps 15 and 16.

Stamp number 13 will be valid from June 1 until August 15, for five pounds of sugar for regular household consumer use.

GUNDER HAEGG TO MAKE DEBUT ABOUT JULY 1

Stockholm, Sweden (AP)—American track fans, impatient for a glimpse of the running form of Gunder Haegg, Sweden's sensational distance performer, will have to be patient about a month longer. The record-smashing athlete won't be able to make his United States debut before July 1.

He is scheduled to arrive in New Orleans aboard the tanker Saturnus June 8, but it will take him three weeks to lose his sea legs, which means he will miss the A. A. U. championships in New York June 19 and 20.

The long ocean voyage has hardened Haegg's springy leg muscles and caused him to gain weight, a correspondent of the Aftonbladet accompanying the runner reports.

The Saturnus encountered stormy weather the first three days and Haegg got little exercise. After that he began running two hours daily, with hourly morning and afternoon sessions on deck. One day he ran 3,000 meters in 10 minutes.

The bobbing deck is a far cry from the springy turf, however, and Haegg's leg muscles, part of the secret of his speed, have suffered accordingly. He also has gained six pounds despite daily visits to the ship's steam bath.

FAMILY TRAIT

"It's a downright shame to be marked that way. But there's nothing to do!" all the women say.

And there isn't a doubt that they all decide

It's a trait that comes from her father's side.

Now never an opera star she'll be, For Ellen Elizabeth sings off key!

Scarce three years old, and a monotonous!

Last to all song when she's older grown!

As lovely to see as the rose of June, But one who can't carry the simplest tune.

"Just like her grandpa!" they all agree

For Ellen Elizabeth sings off key! Doomed to be shushed when the hymns are sung!

Doomed to be mocked by the old and young.

Doomed to distribute the books they use.

But never to join in the songs they choose!

Never the pitch, be it A or C, For Ellen Elizabeth sings off key.

"Just like her grandpa!" the women sigh.

"Never could sing, though he'd always try."

"Just like her grandpa!" the women wall.

"Never could manage to sing the scale!"

Now never from that will her days be free.

For Ellen Elizabeth sings off key.

DOMESTIC SCENE

At evening when the meal is done, And clear the board once more,

The men-folk gather every one To talk their problems o'er.

Meanwhile the women, old and young,

Against the hostess' wishes— And may their praises long be sung—

Go out and do the dishes!

When just a little lad was I, Just as they do today,

When they had finished with the pie

The men-folk moved away, And while they told brave tales anew

Of bears or flying fishes The women-folk took time to do

The silver and the dishes.

In every home it stays the same, In every land, I think,

The men-folk seek the hearth fire's flame,

The women-folk the sink.

The men-folk sit about and smoke And spend the time with fable,

And leave it to the women-folk To clear the dining table.

But here's the dream of free men all,

The reason war is made: That peace shall bless the dining hall,

And keep the table laid, And when at last the war is won

And all its horror passes, The men will chat, with supper done,

While women shine the glasses.

MELLOWED

Time was I argued black was black And would not take one footstep back.

But battled for it, Time was I thought the truth I knew

And knowing something to be true Would not ignore it.

I must, thought I, stand firm and fast

Or live a weakling to the last. When contradicted or denied,

Time was I held a certain pride In long debating,

Thought myself humbled or disgraced

If I by blundering folly faced Stood hesitating.

Into an argument I'd fly, To challenge, question and deny.

Now tempered by the years I sit, Content in silence to submit

And argue little, With just "Perhaps!" or "Maybe so!"

I let all dispute go, Content to whittle.

I've learned that much I once thought true

Was possibly my point of view.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

We receive many letters from Adams county men and women serving their country in this hour of need. Most of them are published in our news columns. The few that are not are those that contain merely a change of address or some information that we consider of such military importance as to come under the code of censorship. The "change of address" letters are published under the heading "With Our Service Men."

This morning we received an interesting letter from Miss Helen M. Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chamberlain, West Broadway, telling of the activities of Red Cross workers at the Seymour-Johnson Field, North Carolina.

Because of the nature of the work and the wide-spread interest in the Red Cross we feel that Miss Chamberlain's letter deserves special treatment.

This is what she wrote: "I want to add my name to the list of hundreds who have already said 'Thank you.' It's really amazing how important the home town paper is on a military post. The biggest city papers with their impersonal headlines lie idle while we read about the activities of the folks back home."

"From the number of friends who have written asking 'what on earth do you do?' I know that most folks aren't aware of the activities of Red Cross at the camps—and it seems a shame because Red Cross is doing a big job, one in which I'm proud to have a small part."

"Here at Seymour-Johnson Field, as at other camps, there are two Red Cross units—one out on the field serving the men there, and one in the hospital serving the patients and Medical detachment men. In our hospital unit, the recreation workers have a job that's really full-time, planning and carrying out an interesting program for convalescents."

"It's a bit harder to define just what we social workers do—briefly, we try to help a man with any and all problems arising from his illness. And there are an amazing number and variety of problems—personal and family—believe me."

"Every once in a while I notice an article in The Times regarding the number of Home Service contacts Miss McMillan has made. The Red Cross at some military post is probably cooperating with her on a number of those."

"It's a world wide job now, one designed to furnish aid for the sick and wounded and to link the people of the United States to their Army and Navy. It's one in which everyone who contributes to the Red Cross War fund has a part. We're all trying to make it worth while. If you could see how the men appreciate the work, you'd feel as proud of your part as I do of mine."

Clock Is Disputed

In the sheriff's office in York, there is an ancient grandfather's clock taken there on a writ of replevin from Margaret Gattrell, of York. The writ was issued on petition of Earl W. Spangler, administrator of the estate of W. S. Houck, late of Tyrone township, Adams county.

It is claimed that the clock, which was hand made in Hanover many years ago, is part of the personal property of the Houck estate. It was said Saturday that a counter bond will be furnished on which the clock will be returned to Margaret Gattrell and remain with her until the court decides the issue.

Food Stolen

From Cottages

Members of the state police continued today their investigation of robberies of five cottages along the Conewago creek near New Oxford sometime between May 23 and May 29.

The cottages were owned by Robert Weirman, McSherrytown; Margaret Louck, Beaver, Pa.; William Mummert, Hanover; Clarence Lough, New Oxford, and Richard Wolfert, Hanover. Only coffee, sugar and canned goods were taken from the cottages. Entrance was made by ripping screens from porches and then breaking windows, police said.

The theft was discovered by Vernon Myers, Gettysburg, who went to his cottage for the Memorial Day week-end and discovered the torn screens. He notified owners who then called in the police.

None of the summer colonists along the Conewago had apparently been at their cottages during the week prior to Memorial Day.

FARM LABOR OFFICE OPENS THIS MORNING

Opening today of an Emergency

Farm Labor office in the Topper building beside the court house, in the office formerly occupied by Dr. W. P. McKnight, was announced by M. T. Hartman, Adams county farm agent.

No announcement was made as to the personnel of the office which will include a field director and secretary. Persons to fill the offices have been interviewed by members of the Emergency Farm Labor committee recently set up in the county and a person has been designated for each office pending approval by Pennsylvania State college.

All of the field directors of farm labor and secretaries in the state are employees of State college, it was stated. A prominent farmer and educator has been proposed for the field agent's position, Mr. Hartman said.

USES Changes Role

Responsibility for organizing and directing a farm labor program has been assigned to the Agricultural Extension services of the land grant colleges by recent congressional action, Mr. Hartman pointed out.

Farm labor placement has been one of the functions of the United States Employment service. The U. S. E. S. will discontinue its program of local recruitment and the placement of farm labor in Pennsylvania, except as it cooperates with the Agricultural Extension service in the interstate recruiting and transportation of farm labor, Hartman explained.

Mr. Hartman reports that the Agricultural Extension service will function through farm labor offices now being established in each county. These offices will be under the direction and supervision of the county farm agents. A county Emergency Farm Labor committee composed of farm leaders, urban business interests, and school authorities will serve in an advisory capacity and assist in making the program as efficient as possible.

The need for food and feed crops is extremely important this year, Mr. Hartman pointed out. Many thousands of skilled farm workers have left Pennsylvania farms for the armed forces and for more remunerative positions in industry.

If the need for food and feed is to be met, it is necessary to mobilize persons who can be made available for farm work, especially during the growing and harvesting season. Very few available persons are skilled in farm work but they are willing to volunteer and do what they can. The patience and resourcefulness of the farm operator will determine the degree to which this unskilled labor can be made effective.

Persons whether skilled or unskilled in farm work, who desire to work on farms for periods of a week to several months or more, are invited to enroll with the county emergency farm labor offices. They will include persons in business establishments or in industry who are able to work on nearby farms a part of a day at a time or who wish to work on farms during vacation periods. Farmers in need of help should make their wants known to the emergency farm labor offices, 111 Baltimore street.

The administration of the program is the responsibility of the Director of the Agricultural Extension service. The supervisor in charge is J. E. McCord whose headquarters will be at the Pennsylvania State college.

Glenn L. Bream, Gettysburg, paid Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore a $5 fine and costs of $3, Wednesday, on a charge of violating blackout regulations in the test last Sunday a week. The charge was brought by Chief of Police Glenn Guise.

Bream was charged as the owner of a garage in Gettysburg where wardens reported a light was burning in show windows during the blackout test. It was alleged there was no outside switch and no one at the garage to turn off the light.

PIPE LINE IS SCHEDULED FOR LINKING TODAY

Work on the "Big Inch", 24-inch pipe line to extend from Texas to Philadelphia, was expected to end in Adams county Thursday with the joining of the York-Adams county section with the link being built across Franklin county.

A corps of experts has been working out of York toward the junction in South Mountains near Caledonia since last November while another crew was working eastward across Franklin county.

The entire pipe line, to carry oil thousands of miles cross-country from the oil fields to the eastern Pennsylvania line, will probably be completed within the next few days. The laying of the pipe was made in sections of from 25 to 30 miles in length and all of the sections will be joined probably within the next few days. J. K. Little, of the York office of the Oklahoma Contracting company said Thursday.

Gasoline Line Next
While no absolute predictions can be made, Mr. Little said, without knowledge of how far advanced other sections are, all of the links were scheduled for completion about the same time.

The York office expected the York-Adams and Franklin sections to join Thursday or at the latest today, depending upon conditions in the mountains where the lines are to join.

As soon as the men complete the first line for oil they will begin laying a 20-inch pipe for gasoline along the same route. About six or seven months will be needed to lay the gasoline line, it was stated.

The line has been laid, sections welded together and covered throughout Adams county and York county, with only a short section in South Mountains still to be covered.

GARDEN THOUGHT

I walk my little garden round,
The one spot left where peace is found,
And none through deadly fire must grope,
The last resource of faith and hope,
And think 'tis surely meant that we Better than mortal are to be.

Only a skill that is divine
Could shape and tint the columbine
Or in the self-same garden bed
Grow roses yellow, white and red
And teach each root and branch to choose
What yellow, white and red must use.

Within that little garden spot
Nothing is won by shell and shot.
The smallest bloom expression seems
Of art beyond man's highest dreams,
Of wisdom and of skill too great
For man to grasp or imitate.

The Great Creator fashions things
Like butterflies with golden wings
And birds for song, and flowers and fruit,
But man still fashions guns to shoot
And spends his thought, his strength,
In making things to crush and kill.

Mrs. Mary Hoke, Lancaster, visited relatives in Biglerville over the week-end.

120 ARE GIVEN DIPLOMAS AT H. S. EXERCISES; 9 IN SERVICE

The four present were soldiers William Coston, Walter Spear, Morris Steinour and William Timmins. The others in service are William Long and Paul Thomas in the Navy; Ronald Enoch, Merchant Marine, and Charles Fridinger and William Harness, Army.

Beliefs Important

Dr. Thomas L. Cline, head of the English department at Gettysburg college, spoke on "The Future of America." Doctor Cline, who had addressed previous commencements at the high school, in 1923 and 1933, compared the mood of America at the present time with its viewpoint at the previous times he had been a speaker. He pointed out that there has been a great increase in idealism and told the students that the question that will determine their future is "What do you believe?"

"The beliefs of Germany made her a menace to the world; the beliefs of the people of France in the Maginot line and the French army made it an easy conquest for Germany, and the beliefs of English leaders in appeasement found England unprepared for war," Doctor Cline said.

"America has always believed in peace and has usually believed in isolationism. The question all the world is asking now is whether America will return, as she did the last time, to isolationism, and the signs are all there that senators are already planning to begin another fight for isolationism.

Future of America

"Do we believe that power has responsibility? If we do, let us not wait until our boys come back. Let us plan out our responsibility now. "A nation believes what the mass of individuals believe," Dr. Cline concluded, "and on what we believe rests the answer to the future of America."

The stage was decorated with a huge "V" of red and white flowers and flags of the United Nations. Theme of the commencement was "We Pledge Allegiance."

Tribute to Service Men

Excerpts from the sixth symphony of Tchaikowsky were played by the school orchestra as an overture followed by selections from Wagner's operas for the procession. The 115 seniors present marched in grey scholastic gowns and caps from the rear of the auditorium to the front, with members of the senior choir marching onto the stage. The choir sang, "God of Our Fathers," followed by the invocation by the Rev. Howard S. Fox of Trinity Evangelical Reformed church.

James Stoner, president of the class, and master of ceremonies for the program paid tribute to the members of the class in service.

"America, Our Heritage," first part of the program, was symbolized by the recitation of expressions of American ideals given by famous Americans. Lois Hanawalt gave the speech on liberty by Patrick Henry; John Mitchell recited the speech on unity by Daniel Webster, and Ethel Geisey, a speech on democracy by Woodrow Wilson. The chorus sang "America My Wondrous Land."

"America Our Challenge," second part of the program, featured the singing of "Stouthearted Men" by the senior boys' chorus and recitation of "America Our Challenge," a selected portion of a talk by President Roosevelt, by Philip Ridinger. "America Our Future" included the singing of "Onward Ye People" by the senior choir; the talk by Doctor Cline; roll call by Guile W. Lefever, principal of the high school; presentation of diplomas by Lloyd C.
